

Michaelmas Messages

Introduction

This monograph is a collection of journal entries from 2009 to 2016. I have gathered up the entries on specific subjects, with an introduction and biography, for those interested in particular areas. There has been only a bit of editing and additions to clarify, otherwise, the information is as it came. I have left it in this form so that the Gentle Reader may experience the progression of the thoughts, insights, and inspirations. The spiritual world is unfolding, even as life on Earth is changing and evolving. Most of my spiritual research, recorded in the journals, tracks the changes and the messages from the super-sensible realms on a number of different subjects.

The "" (quotation marks) indicate that the enclosed words are heard spoken directly from spiritual beings in spiritual realms. Whole paragraphs are sometimes included. My own thoughts and elaborations, receive no such marks, unless it is a direct question or verbatim conversation with a spiritual being. Some of the realms are inhabited by a variety of beings, both super-sensible and physical. They go by many names: Angels and the whole hierarchy of creation, Elementals, Extra-Terrestrials, and human beings both living and dead.

I feel the need to explain how I came to have such communications and to research questions in spiritual realms. I had a near-death experience at birth which was recovered when I was in my 40s, which explains my early spiritual experiences and the fact that I did not forget them as I grew older. I have meditated and prayed since my teens, done yoga and tai chi for forty years, studied the esoteric since the 60s, and Anthroposophy, the work of Rudolf Steiner since the 70s. Somewhere in the middle of my life, I became personally creative in my meditative practices – I turned like the Dervishes; did mudras and eurhythmy; danced, sang, toned and ohmed; began simple sacred geometric forms in my mind and elaborated on them till one day in 2000, one form became a vehicle for entry into spiritual worlds and landscapes. There are multiple aspects and areas of the spiritual realms. Each specific dimension has specific 'laws' governing the functions therein. (Refer to Chapter 8: Esoteric Christianity in Lucid Death: Conscious Journeys Beyond the Threshold for the basis of my understanding of spiritual realms. I am working on a more comprehensive 'Conceptual Matrix' at this time.)

Before 2000, the explorations and research in spiritual realms mostly came by grace and circumstance. Since then, I have traveled and sought answers to specific questions and issues. Many monographs and three books are the result. When reading this material, I simply advise an observational, open mind to receive the information. Then I suggest discerning reflection and a modicum of logical, sequential thought to process the information, in order to come to an understanding appropriate for each individual's unique destiny needs. Existence is a puzzle, and we all have a few pieces. I trust that the ones I found will be helpful for your big picture.

If sharing this monograph, please include the introduction, to give the work a human context. I wish you happy, enlightening reading. Thank you. Kienda

St. Michael's Michaelmas Messages

Michaelmas – September 29, 2009

I went to the subterranean rock Temple in Mount Shasta and Michael was there. The Archangel Michael, standing in splendor, said, "The time has come. The time is NOW to take up the sword of discernment and cut through the tangles in your daily life. Its time to cut through the Gordian knot. What is your crux? Cut to the heart of it with precision and elegance. And when you are free, it's time to turn the sword of discernment to the outer world and cut through the lies and deceit that are everywhere. SIMPLIFY. SPEAK YOUR TRUTH.

And lo, I will be with you always , even to the ends of the earth because I love my Christ and speak for Him. In His name – Amen.

("Now, lie down and receive the music that will heal you." Archangel Michael said to me. And I did. And I was.)

Michaelmas, September 29, 2012 – San Francisco

Up to the New Jerusalem and into the great meeting hall. The souls of the dead are on the stage – millions of them. These are the ones who have been released from one kind of entrapment or another. (Refer to Aberrations in Heaven and Hell: When Life Impinges Upon Death for the many stories of such soul entrapment.) Many more continue to be freed, as myself and others work toward that end. There was an acknowledgment ceremony between us all. It is the still living souls sitting in the audience. We all solemnly acknowledged one another on the opposite side, confirming our bonds and intention to work together.

Then all were seated. A huge hologram of the earth appeared with cross sections and diagrams. There are breaches in the integrity of Earth's etheric body. These are created by poisoning pollution, atomic waste and now, GMO DNA anomalies that are put into the ground and air. These breaches constitute dimensional portals or passageways for the negative and anti-social tellurian forces in the inner layers of the earth, to move out to the surface and influence people, communities and culture. Deep drilling for oil, and to a lesser degree, fracking, creates passageways for evil to surface.

The Elementals cannot keep those negative, sub-etheric forces down. They are not able to remain on GMO infected land. The Elementals cannot work with such unnatural plants, animals, contaminated soil and air. They are loosed from their rightful work and tasks, and are causing massive weather changes as a result. Instead of normal Elementals, the GMO contaminated plants, land and animals are etheric hosts to the subterranean forces from the deeper strata of the earth.

“How can we change and heal this?” I asked. “Radiation you can love and heal from higher dimensions of the astral and Ego/I. But the GMO issue is far more complicated. GMOs are conceived in the ahrimanicly influenced minds of men. It will take moving into higher dimensions such as the spirit self, to transmute GMOs. Who among you humans can do that? And consciously?”

That was the conclusion of the morning meditation. I took a brief nap, and was met by Shushilla, the white dragon, (Refer to The Dragon Quintet: A History of Dragons in the Universe to meet Shushilla.) who took me for a ride. We looked down at the earth as we took off from the New Jerusalem, where this morning’s Michaelmas ceremony took place, and I could see millions of new dragons hatching and growing and learning to fly with their persons.

Then I thought about how to seal the etheric breaches of Earth. I looked at the ground and saw billions of worms or bugs with human faces crawling out of the earth. The ground seethed with them. Is that an image from the apocalypse?

Then I realized that the divine dragon may be a metaphorical form of the evolved spirit self. It is with our dragons, and our personally transformed reptilian brain stems, that humanity may find a way to ameliorate and transmute GMOs. Yes, I think so. There is work to do. One aspect is doing the spiritual work now – going on from the basic meditations to actually doing tasks and projects in the spiritual world.

I then flew with Shushilla and a couple of other people and dragons, and we watched as Michael drew a 'cylinder' around the new dean of a struggling college, with his sword of flame, held vertically. The demons clustering about her cannot get out and do terrible mischief as they have been doing. Instead, it all goes back on her. It’s instant karma time. This was done to a number of people who are doing evil deeds in the world. Karma is swinging right back into people’s faces. (Later, that afternoon, I got a parking ticket for $62 for four minutes overtime. I made poor and unconscious choices, and will now have to pay that money out to the city, rather than spend it on buying good food for everyone. Wake up, Self, damn it. It’s instant karma time.)

In the New Jerusalem, Christ said to all assembled: “Beloveds, we are entering the final phase of the old. The new is breaking ground, breaking cover. The seed has sprouted and it will grow strong and swift for a while. Look to yourselves to nurture the future. I am in you. Welcome Me into all parts of yourselves. You are My body on Earth.”

“It’s quantum leap time. Every guardian angel is receiving powerful cosmic energies of light, love, and future goodness. I know your angels. Please, love your angels and receive their loving guidance. Your angels are a part of your etheric bodies. Remain clean and clear etherically. Eat well and organic. Breathe deeply of clean air. Focus your thoughts on destiny and follow your calling. Seek and you shall find. Ask and ye shall receive. Knock and the door will be opened unto you. Intend in clarity and ask for what you want and need, and you will receive it. Intend perfection in your body and as I am the template of human perfection and the goal of human evolution, so will you be perfect in Me.”

“This last phase is all about healing. Release the old patterns in life – all the way down to the cells. Release and let go. Receive the new light, the new cosmic forces, the ever stronger cosmic rays of light and wisdom. You are the vessel – the chalice. I would fill you with light and love, wisdom and health, creativity and joy.”

“Please accept this gift. Please receive this gift.”

I said, “Thank you. I so gratefully receive. For me, it is helping people in this last phase to let go and open to the creative, divine, new future. I can help on all levels – physically by sharing healing energies of light and love; etherically by transmitting compassionate energies and information; astrally by unconditional tough love to all; and spiritually by sharing the wisdom and cosmic information I have been given.”

Then, Christ blessed and dismissed me, saying, “Go now and DO!!!!” So I did. And continue to the best of my abilities.

Happy Awakening. Happy Enlightening.

Tuesday, November 18, 2014 – Fair Oaks, California

A small meeting with my spiritual family and St Michael, who is speaking for Christ, occurred in a small room in the New Jerusalem. “Because this, your work will be representing Christ to the world, I, Michael am here as quality control of the ‘presented countenance of Christ.’ What you say is good and true. The issue is how it is said and how all the pertinent information can be included. ”

“The fact of the spiritual, cosmic forces behind the drama of today, both light and dark must be included. The positive outcome must also be presented so that people have the image of light and positive resolution in their minds to integrate the diverse realities that you present, and that are possible at this time. Many humans are incapable of drawing the right conclusions. Freedom of mind and soul has atrophied in many and been usurped in many more. The conclusions must be clear to reawaken hope for positive choice and the energy for needed action, to accomplish transformation both individually and socially collectively.”

“Since you can see both the light and the dark sides, Sharon (the spiritual world addresses me by my given name when things are really serious) and express them without fear or distortion, you must do it. Books!! Writing!! It is time now!!! Contact publishers. You will find an ally.”

The Warriors of the Rainbow Light and the Native American Contingency (Refer to Aberrations in Heaven and Hell;) asked eagerly, “How can we help?” St. Michael said. “It’s time to do some nudging from the spiritual world. In spite of the chaos in both worlds, physical and spiritual, ways shall be made straight. Order and harmony shall be reinstated and made manifest. You can help by communicating to human souls both living and dead, and by drawing lines of order for events and people to come into alignment with.”

“The time of open, free choice has gone and will come again later. Now it is the time for choices between pre-ordained routes. It is appropriate for you in the spiritual world to create clear choices for living human’s actions. Not just appropriate, but absolutely necessary. Human free will has atrophied. It can be resuscitated by having clear choices between pre-set patterns to follow, for a while. That will awaken the ability to cognize, discern, choose, and then do something in alignment with the choice. So you in the spirit worlds, you the human dead, can see more clearly. You have relationships to those on earth who are passive, wounded, and whose free will has been damaged. You can inspire those to new clarity, vision, and action. You can lead them to information and feelings and ‘spiritual adventures’ that will re-enliven their consciousness and nudge their free will into action. Yes, please do help in this work. All is good when done with enthusiasm, morality, and love. You, dear Warriors of the Rainbow Light, and Native American Contingency, have these qualities and are devoted to Christ and human awakening. So, we shall work together to create clear, true lines to truth and Christed consciousness, that many may follow and be healed and made whole and become active in their own individual lives. Then, over time, the collected human consciousness and activity will transform the earth and all life on her to a better, more lovingly evolved experience. Now is the time for humanity to awaken and follow the promptings of their hearts which will come from the spirit worlds.”

Michaelmas – September 29, 2014 – Pine Grove, California

As soon as I arrived in the New Jerusalem, and hadn't even got seated, I heard St. Michael speaking. "I am Michael. I uphold the cosmic laws of creation and functionality. Where my Lord Christ is, I am not needed. His powerful divine love sets to right where He is. That is why He must be invited into all human hearts. He will not trespass the free will of any being. Where Christ is, there is harmony with the positive evolution of life, and He is everywhere. The beings and forces antithetical to evolution or those who have been lost in the past and have not yet found their way back to the light, are often in opposition to cosmic law. Their forays into the dark side are an education and test for themselves as well as for the humans who fall under their influence. These are the realms that I, Michael, must watch and moderate."

"When our Christ was working on Earth, I did my best to keep the higher dimensions in order and functioning smoothly. Then He ascended into the clouds – the etheric world – as all humans who die have done. He had transformed Death's domain and now patterned the new after-life journey for human souls. He remained in the etheric world for three years before journeying out through the astral plane where Lucifer, who had lived there since the Fall in Lemuria, was informed that his redemption was coming."

"Then, Christ expanded out into lower and upper Devachan, the planetary spheres, teaching the inhabitants and hierarchies in each one, how to receive and work with the human souls that would be coming their way on the soul's journey to the midnight hour of existence in galactic center, the heart of God. Then Christ continued and set the template of the after-life journey through the zodiac, the far stars of the galaxy, to the very heart of God, which radiates love and light like our sun but on a cosmic, galactic scale."

"While Christ so journeyed, I, Michael and my hosts, kept the etheric and astral planes as clear as we could. The lower earthly portions of these higher realms, however, were infested by a continually growing dark side. The vibration rate necessary to rise into the higher levels of the etheric and astral planes was itself a safe guard for those realms. I and my angels kept them clear and in readiness for Christ's return. There were occasional problems which needed severe cleansing but order and harmony were always – in the end – restored."

"At the turning points of time, when cosmic cycles have come to their conclusions and transformation and transition is in full swing, often the opposition to that change will intensify their action and do their darndest to disrupt the positive potential of the cosmic moment. The end of Kali Yuga was one such pivotal point. The changing of the Archangelic guard is always another. Both of those occurred in the late 1800s. Ahriman had been pushing the materialistic agenda very hard, and in those years and many after (the materialistic thinking is beginning to lessen only now in the general population) extreme materialism damaged the souls of humanity to the point of dragging many angels into the void of atheism and the deadening belief in 'nothing.' Whole areas of Kama Loka were barren as numerous souls remained in the lower etheric realms, unable to journey into the stars as was appropriate. In a sense, they had traded their cosmic birthright for a mess of physical, material pottage. Unfortunately, their angels were often consigned to waiting in limbo for their person to be awakened, saved and freed to move on, or in some cases, the angel was dragged into those dead, materialistic worlds with their person."

"I, Michael, and my angels usually cannot enter such lower etheric and astral levels unless requested. But living human beings can raise themselves consciously into those realms and assist in Christ's work and mine, for the saving of human souls."

"I had to clear the etheric world of such dross and residue when I first came into regency. In the 1930's, again, I and my hosts needed to clear the etheric worlds for the re-entry of Christ on His way back to Earth from the midnight hour in Galactic Center. Christ returned. His second coming was accomplished in 1933, but, of course, the dark oppositional side was in full gear, working toward WWII and the total obscuration of the spiritual realities of the time. Christ re-inserted Himself into the etheric world and worked to cleanse, strengthen and heal it."

"There was precious little time to do this healing, because atomic destruction was coming. Radiation damages the etheric worlds as well as the physical, so when the first tests were being done, there was incredible chaos unleashed in the etheric body of Earth. Christ, as the highest being and regent of the solar system, holds the perfect template of all manifested forms of life on this planet. The etheric body of Christ is the perfection of form and function of our world. This destruction of form and order in Earth's ether body, brought about by atomic explosions, was a second crucifixion for Christ. This time it was not a physical experience, but an etheric one. The harmony of the form and function of the earthly ether world was destroyed which was an attack on Christ's etheric body as well."

"Christ strove mightily to resurrect His etheric body and the Earth's, which in time He did. When the radiation damaged the etheric body of Earth and would have annihilated all life on our planet, Christ was there in that realm to hold matter in form and stabilize the etheric plane. This task took tremendous forces which Christ had gathered on His journey to the stars and back. For many years now, He has held the etheric realm steady in spite of the atomic foolishness and deadly substances humanity has unwittingly unleashed on Earth."

"At the ending of WWII, there was an onslaught of damaged souls that began to find their way to the etheric world with their own etheric bodies tattered and torn from the death by cyanide in the holocaust. (Cyanide damages the etheric body, making the after-life difficult if not impossible to accomplish in the normal way.) And then, thousands passed through from Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Their physical and etheric bodies had been vaporized. They are only a memory in the spirit worlds, having nothing left to work with in either the etheric or astral realms.”

“Christ and the hierarchies instituted new ways to heal and soothe the damaged souls. Many returned to Earth within a very short time, having been unable to move into Kama Loca or beyond. Then, pollution on Earth began to modify the etheric touch-point of the human genome, the DNA pattern for a perfect body. Anomalies like the thalidomide babies began to rise up into the etheric worlds after their mostly untimely deaths – hard lessons for souls, difficult challenges for resolution, and often, blighted prospects for the next incarnation. These problems that arise now in etheric aberrations are similar to the moral failings such as untruthfulness in the past. The etheric abnormalities affect the physical body, making incarnation difficult. If the etheric body is too damaged, twisted or deformed, the experiences of life cannot accurately imprint the etheric body. That causes problems in the after-life due to an inaccurate impression of the astral body from the damaged etheric. Therefore, the resolution in Kama Loca is not complete because facets of life were not accurately recorded or were completely unavailable. This may over time accrue. Unresolved residues from past lives may make it difficult to incarnate in the future.”

“In these cases, in this time, it is not the collateral effect of individual external karma, called the ‘sins of the world,’ that cause the problem. Christ in his physical incarnation, crucifixion, descent into death, resurrection and ascension; healed the accumulated sins of the worlds and He became the Lord of Karma. The quandary human souls find themselves in today is not always the result of karmic action, but is instead, the result of sins of omission, ignorance, and unconsciousness – thoughtless life-style choices and lack of needed spiritual information, and such. These sins mostly rebound back on the individual. They bear the brunt of their own unconsciousness, which is often expressed in problems in the etheric body from an unconsciously damaged physical body.”

“For seventy years, Christ has remained in the etheric world – holding steady, healing, and revitalizing when and where ever possible. I, Michael, have supported my Christ through this time, to the best of my abilities.”

“At the disaster of Fukushima, the time had come when the damage from radiation and the pitifully low consciousness of humanity, necessitated a greater force than was possible from the etheric dimension. It was time, cosmically and in the perfection of evolution, to ascend into the astral world. The ascension of Christ’s resurrected etheric body occurred over time and was completed in May of 2011.”

“There are, as said before, transition times. The move from the etheric realm to the astral was definitely one of those. It was time for sweeping changes. Christ ascended. I, Michael, also ascended with my hosts and many other leaders and guides of humanity. Formerly, the White Brotherhood, Ascended Masters, and other such highly evolved individuals worked and lived primarily in Earth’s etheric body. These beings are daily working with Christ to balance life on Earth, awaken and guide human souls, and encourage evolution in a multitude of ways. They also ascended at that time, to be in spiritual proximity to Christ and His loving, beneficent energy.”

“From the astral world of emotion, Christ pours unconditional love down on Earth and all her inhabitants. The biggest influx of this Christed love and quickening consciousness came in 12/21/2012 – which could be described as the second Pentecost. The time frames are different from the events surrounding the Mystery of Golgotha, but the sequence is the same. After Christ ascended into the clouds (the etheric world), 2,000 years ago, he began to send powerful new etheric impulses to humankind, beginning at Whitson/Pentecost and continuing ever after.”

“Now, Christ and all who work with him began to send new astral impulses for awakening humanity to cosmic destiny, creating community, and seeding a new world. Will humans wake and work with Christ? I, Michael and the hosts of Heaven await humanity’s conscious participation in their own destiny. It is happening now, slowly but surely. Thank you.”

Thus ended St. Michael’s message on this, his special day, Michaelmas, 2014.

The following journal entries are a collection of transmissions from St. Michael since he joined Edgar Mitchell and the Interstellar Team in 2016. His contributions are included here.

Tuesday Morning – March 29, 2016 – Marin Valley, California

I pushed the wrong buttons when 'snoozing' this morning, and woke up to the 6:00 alarm. I proceeded to my meditations and for the next 15 minutes, did them in full transparent view of the team. Edgar asked, “Who inspired these in you?” I answered “St Michael, the Countenance of Christ. Christalina also helped and everyone in my spiritual family and . . . I was about to continue, when Saint Michael appeared and began to speak, “I willingly inspire any individual who will receive. The problem now is, no one takes the time to listen and receive. That choice of Sharon's (Kienda's) gave me the space to communicate with her. Plus, she is of an open and creative disposition and was happy to explore and experiment. We had a good time together though she never admitted clearly that it was I who inspired her”

“Now, with the situation in the Anthroposophical Society and the loss of Rudolf Steiner College, it is time to work together in the outer world. Anthroposophy, which is a reasonable contemporary exposition of cosmic verities and a cumbersome conceptual matrix for understanding the expanding universe in which everything is taking place, needs to be re-enlivened, cast in new roles, and dressed in new clothes. Things – every thing – has changed and evolved. Anthroposophy has too. All the wisdom of the world is being spread out over the whole globe. Humans must communicate together about important issues. Honesty and transparency must prevail. It is the correct mood for this, my Michaelic age. And darn soon, too – we are almost half way through my reign and it has been slow going. Now the tide has finally turned and the energy of the most contemporary 'Michaelic' consciousness-soul attributes are flowing inexorably across Earth in waves. 'He is risen' for the last time. More and beyond has occurred. Humanity must and will catch up."

"Kienda, tell the story. It is time. People are ripe for a true understanding. The whole disclosure of UFOs and ETs impulse, is a materialistic inkling of the greater cosmic realities that have, are and will affect Earth and all her inhabitants. The worlds can only be bridged by individual experiences. No amount of disclosed files, thousands of pages in length, will give the needed experience. As Anthroposophists know, clear thinking is a valid experience and proof for an individual. That experience – that 'aha' – opens the door of perception into other worlds and the perception of spiritual beings and higher truths. So, it may be in small venues of only one or two people, but it will spread from each exponentially. Now is the time. The future is upon us. I, Michael, Countenance of Christ, am powerfully present and give my blessing and my sword to all who are willing to speak the truth, which imprints the etheric world with forms and patterns that resonate with cosmic truth and ripple rhythmically out into the collective etheric memory of Earth and all her inhabitants, creating harmony, grace and a cohesive field."

"Each individual must listen, receive and allow themselves to resonate sympathetically with my impulses, my messages, and my expressions of Christ's contemporary revelations of truth beyond the old regime's wildest imaginings. Each age is steeped in its own appropriate values, knowledge, and wisdom. The quintessence of the old must be metamorphosed into seeds for the present, with potential for the future. There is much that needs to be left in the past, and much that needs transformation to be viable today, much less be seeds for a life-sustaining future."

"This team is a harbinger of cooperative collaboration for the future. Today's task is to create among you, channels through which Christ and myself can work deeply into individual souls who have awakened and who are asking questions that deserve full answers."

"I, Michael, the Countenance of Christ, am on this team. Wherever my Lord Christ goes, there am I also. Bernie Sanders is now the torch-carrier and the Michaelic sword-carrier for the awakening age. He is a truly good man, refined in life's own fires, and willing and able to champion the cause of life, compassion, and just about everything good."

April 9, 2016

It was Saint Michael. When I stood in his place, I said, looking at myself sitting on my bed in the barn at Kinder Meadow those many years ago, "Anyone who perseveres as you did – I will guide. See your heart. It is glowing with compassion in spite of and because of all you have experienced. You almost always made the best of life's situations. That gave me much to work with. So I, Michael, did. So we did. We worked together to develop these meditations." "Thank you, I am exceedingly grateful," I said, bowing my head. "So am I," replied the Archangel Michael.

August 12, 2016

Then Archangel Michael stepped forward. "Greetings, Beloveds from many spheres. I, Michael, the Countenance of our Christ, have a gift for each of you that will augment your individual works in the world at this crucial time. For each of you – according to your talents and abilities – it is the gift of increased precision, focus, accuracy, and efficiency. My sword of light is available to each of you to refine your abilities and impel your soul to your specific needed actions. I am the Motivator. I ignite the flame of action in your heart's and mind's truest desires. Prepare for action. The time has come. Follow the true calling of your hearts, minds, and souls. Put caution and restraint behind you, and act in accordance with your destiny – as appropriate."

"Humanity has the nascent knowledge and skills to accomplish their evolutionary deeds of self-actualization and enlightenment. Use my sword of light to cut through the negative, manipulated bullshit, and rise above the mire. There is clarity, light, and love, only one thought away. Think the loving thought. Create the balanced emotion within yourself. Rise and join us here in the fields of the soul and spirit." And Michael sat down after a slight bow.

I could feel a flickering light in my throat and on my tongue. I will use Michael's Sword of Light in my speaking – in my words.
