

Ahriman and the Azuras

By

Kienda (Bettrue) Valbracht

Tuesday, June 14, 2011 – in Bellevue, Washington with Ignazio

I have been spending the meditation time in the New Jerusalem. Today, I am in the 'office' in the hall to the left of the Great Hall doors. And I am asking questions – especially, “How did the infiltration happen?” “You are asking to understand the work of the Azuras, then.” answered the Light Being on the other side of the desk. “Yes, I am.” I replied, and he began his story:

“Just as Lucifer is a fallen Kyriotete, Ahriman is a fallen Spirit of Form – a hardened, contracted, retrograde Exusiai. So, too, the Azuras are fallen Spirits of Personality, Archai (through Saturn under the impress of unredeemed Scorpio.) The Azuras are an aspect of fallen hierarchies who are working to prevent the blossoming and flowering of the divine, creative Ego/I. Their wish is to pervert and stunt the proper Ego/I development in order to have more souls unable to ascend with the proper earthly evolution. Instead, they want to have many more such stunted humans remain with the corpse of the earth when she dies and transcends. They – all the whole fallen hierarchies – want human minions for their idea of a 'world. To this end, Lucifer has tempted and attacked the human astral body. Ahriman attacks the etheric body, thereby affecting the physical body. Now the Azuras are massing for the coup DE tat – their hoped for death stroke to the human Ego/I, human creativity and human freedom.”

“The ground work for their arrival and intervention has been laid. Through Ahriman's influence of materialistic thinking has come all the toxins, poisons, chemicals, and negative frequencies – all the way up (or down) to the atomic bombs – that damage the physical vehicle and make a correct and complete incarnation into the physical body almost impossible. Lucifer's manipulation of media and the deadening that it does to the astral body has damaged the heart and feelings of masses of humanity - not to mention the negative emotions of fear and anger that are whipped up by economics, politics and religion. So, now, riding into the human being on angry elementals, come the Azuras.”

“The Ego/I in 2011 is trapped in damaged physical, etheric, and astral bodies. The Ego is not well 'seated' or healthy or balanced. The Azuras enter and fill all the empty, hollow psychological and emotional 'holes' with anoveriding, overweening, overpreening egotism. The ennui and angst of the meaninglessness of modern life without a connection to the spiritual worlds or even morality; is seized upon by the Azuras, who fan the flames of helplessness, emptiness and fear, and then goad the wounded human ego into aggrandizement, bombast, and self-delusion.”

“Any unredeemed propensities are used!! Any unbalanced people are pushed over the edge. The masses are manipulated by the media and other minor, mindless methods into the usual, petty grievances and self-absorbed activities of individual neuroses. Those who have power already, are driven to megalomania. New Age, spiritual folks are moved towards controlling others, and the 'guru' syndrome. The more evolved people are individually and personally under attack, because the Azuras and all the oppositional beings want to 'dull the cutting edge', and sway humanity from its appointed destiny of developing in full consciousness the God/divine being within – Christ.”

So – the infiltration: and I began to put pieces of the puzzle together. It was not Cathy or Mitch, but someone else at the 'Egotism Talk' in Shasta in March, walked around and set 'time bombs' or 'occultly shielded thoughts' that would record all the plans of the White Brotherhood and then erase the lines and writing at a future date – May's Friday the 13th. It has to do with tampering with the Akashic Record flow of time. All the work of the light side has been co-opted by the dark side – as well as their former residences. Now the White Brotherhood have to go in many different directions and in small groups of only 2 or 3, so as not to be caught all together in such a way again. It was human and Azuric tampering in the Akashic (recording ether?).

It was only 1 human person that was the carrier of this 'infection/contagion/virus', or who was the spy for the Azuras. It happened all over the world at the same time. So there are a number of humans who did this whole global operation – one in: America, the Andes, Tibet, Mt. Kilimanjaro in Africa, Mt. Fuji in Japan, Ayers Rock in Australia and in the Alps in Europe. There are 7 at least. They were influenced by the Azuras to do the deed for power and position in the 'new world.' Is it an attempt to halt the cataclysms which may stop the nuclear insanity? Are humans to be given enough time and another chance to destroy itself through pollution and radiation and the insanity of life-as-usual?

AHRIMAN says, “Oh, no you don't. You can't get away from the earth – it's all there is. What you see is what you get, so get it while you can. Grab what you want when you want it. Physical stuff is for the grabbing. Science is god. You can weigh and measure only what is real and true. There is nothing else. Karma? Ha! Reincarnation? Ha ha!! Death is the absolute end of existence, so satisfy all earthly desires – after all, that's what they are there for. You're a fool if you don't and a sitting duck for those that do.”

The results of following Ahriman's seductive call is atheism, sclerotic, science-bound thinking, and amorality which is immoral. The soul of humanity is denied existence and eradicated. The senses are the boundary of existence. Ahriman wishes to lead humanity downward into earth-bound, only sense directed life. His is a 'dog eat dog' kind of existence – or maybe its 'big fish eat little fish.' That may be true in some aspects of nature, but it is not applicable to the human soul and spirit.

Ahriman leads the thinking astray through influence in the etheric body. Technology has been developed that harms the etheric body as well as the physical. DNA is the physical touch-point and carrier of the archetypal etheric pattern of evolutionary potential for each species and each individual. DNA can be damaged and mutated by radiation, GMO tampering, EMF and HAARP vibrations and many other ways. The whole earth and all of humanity is under attack by these means.

And then there are THE AZURAS. In the 1920s, Rudolf Steiner said they would come onto the earth from the cosmos (outer space) through a world-wide web. The physical manifestations of Ahriman – science and technology that do not admit the existence of spirit and the value of the individuality – are the medium through which the Azuras work. They are intent upon destroying the core identity of humanity – they are bent on annihilating the human ego, the higher self of the human spirit.

This they do in ways which have taken social forms. Humanity can be reduced to a meaningless number through politics, the educational system, the health and social systems – in fact, all systems in which individual needs are not considered, much less met. Corporations as individuals with legal rights but no responsibilities to humanity, are a perfect example of the results of Azuric influence. An educational system where the dollar is the bottom line and the lowest common denominator is the rigidly-held standard to which all children must perform, is another. Punitive and judgmental social systems which shame and degrade, political and financial institutions which victimize the populations they were created to support, are all inspired by the Azuras.

The feelings here were extremely different from the Christian Community service. Here, Gary stood at the abyss of the gates of Hell as the flames rose and boiled before him. He was supported behind by many angels and I stood off to the left and out of the way.

The shadow ahrimanic being was standing behind him also and gloating because it thought that it could now push his soul into the abyss. However, because of the strength, sacrifice and integrity of his death, Gary had the power and strength to demand that the ahrimanic being of the pacemaker, with whom he had battled for the last years since the operation, remain with the body as it was being cremated. With strong and masterful gestures, Gary said, "You must die your lie. You have told me incessantly, that the physical is all there is. 'Live at all costs.' 'All that matters is matter - nothing else counts.' So now you must complete your belief. Go with all there is and all that matters. Go to the dissolution of the physical body that you tried to wrest from me. Go to your 'death and transformation.' Let it be a lesson to all other possessing ahrimanic entities. If you beguile a human being into your beliefs, then you must pay the consequences – they all must.”

The shadow followed Gary's gestures, lay down and inserted itself into the body in the casket. Pulleys pulled and wheels turned and the coffin moved slowly into the furnace off to the right side. There was shrieking as of the fiends of hell, as the coffin burned and the ahrimanic being was reduced to carbon ash and fumes with the body. This was the first time an ahrimanic being had been so completely destroyed. It was like a crucifixion for the ahrimanic entities offering new realizations of material death which none of them had ever experienced before.

A few members of the hierarchy of the Spirits of Form reclaimed the 'vestiges' of the ahrimanic being who was then resurrected in a purely spiritual form. Now, one ahrimanic being has learned the truth of reincarnation and karma and the forces of Christ and the positive work of the hierarchies. This being is now on an upward evolutionary path and out of Ahriman's clutches. Now this being is working with Christ and evolved humanity. It can show any and all other ahrimanic beings the way out of Ahriman's hell and forward to their next level of evolution.

There is an ahrimanic defection beginning now, as others watched the gruesome death of one of their own and seen the lie they had believed, and the dead-end of spiritual existence which would follow for themselves and for the humans they were possessing. Many are now learning from this resurrected spiritual ex-ahrimanic being, and the spiritual and physical worlds are changing. This is the work that Gary has done for the world (as his mother and father knew in their hearts.) His life has been a preparation for this. The illness that were visited upon him, not acquired by his own outward lapses or fallibility, but by destiny, were for strengthening and his manner of conscious death was the final sacrifice and gift that gave him the consciousness and power in the spiritual world to accomplish his deed for human, ahrimanic and hierarchical evolution.

I had stood out of the way, beside Gary, and watched all this. Then he turned to me and said, “I could never have succeeded without my Mother nurturing and holding to my higher self – without my Mother's love. And I could never have found the strength and fortitude without my Father's noble, creative model of a true Human Man.”

All is well. The object lesson to the ahrimanic beings will continue to move among them, and many will return to Christ and evolution rather than remain on the dark side and devolution into dead materialism.

Rudolf Steiner said that many angels defected to materialism due to the effects in the afterlife of the completely materialistic thinking of their people. The tide is turning and the spiritual beings are experiencing and observing the dead-end annihilation of materialism, and are looking to Christ with hope. They will now work to inspire their 'people' to spirit perception.

Ahriman is a fallen Spirit of Form. I think that I have said that before, because it has been given to me that he is. In almost all levels of the hierarchies and in all manifested species, there is the possibility of choice and necessary parameters or limitations to any and all levels of activity. In other words: there is good and bad, beneficent and malevolent in all species that come to relate to humanity. Only at the highest levels of the God-head, and perhaps the three levels at the throne of God, is the purity of complete polarization to the good assured and functional. The paradox, then, is that the good accepts and loves the bad, therefore enveloping the malevolent with beneficence.

At the highest levels, there is no judgment of good or bad, as both are in balance and at peace. Judgment on an emotional basis is not valid. 0 to 99% of the forces can simply be seen as an electric metaphor of + and -. When in balance and functioning from their intrinsic nature, all is well. Extremes of either polarity can cause difficulty at whatever level it occurs.

Human beings and most of the extra terrestrials who visit earth in one plane or dimension, or another, also have, as we do, the freedom of choice to establish and remain in balance, or to go to either extreme end of the polarity.

Lucifer was effective when humankind was fresh from the spiritual worlds, and still “trailing clouds of glory.” His effectiveness has worn off. When Ahriman hit the scene, humanity was becoming more deeply enmeshed in physicality. The etheric world, and earth-bound thinking were prime ripe for manipulation. Now humanity is so far and so deeply embedded in materialism that Lucifer’s temptations have lost much of their former allure.

The Azuras have taken over where Lucifer left off. Individuals who in the past in this life have been susceptible to Lucifer’s wiles are now more easily prey of the Azuras. Their goal is the intensification of Lucifer’s methods. Now, not only is the person lifted off the earthly plane to lose himself in illusion, but the actual Ego/I is being systematically destroyed. The effects of heavy drugs like ‘crack’ and methamphetamines are an example of that. Individuals lose their humanness – their individuality – and are enslaved to a drug that renders all other aspects of life meaningless – the mind, the heart, and the whole world.

Lucifer is being redeemed and he and his minions will help in the struggle against the temptations of the Azuras. Lucifer will in time, be working with Christ. We need all the help we can get.

Friday, December 5, 2014 – Berkeley, California

Lucifer offered humankind the opportunity to become aware of, purify and transform our astral bodies to the higher octave of the Spirit Self (Manas.) Ahriman is the goad whereby we become conscious of our etheric bodies in order to transform them to the purified etheric Life Spirit (Buddhi.) Now that Lucifer is being redeemed because he has accomplished his task and we contemporary human beings have the immediate task of actualizing our spirit selves, the Azuras have arrived to provide the stimulus for lower Ego transformation to the higher octave of Spirit Man (Atman.)

Ahriman is still between two other forces of evil, and like the second child in the family, has had no time alone, but is always working in tandem with another force of perversion. The working with Lucifer is coming to its appointed, star-designated end. The Azuras are already here on Earth and their work has begun. If the actual consciousness of an individual can be perverted and the higher Ego/I is not able to function as the resident entity in the lower bodies, then the soul will be blighted and the Azuras take the place of the original, rightful, spark-of-the-divine human individuality. The human soul and spirit may be ejected from the bodies and a possessing ahrimanic and/or azuric being gain possession and residence in the human form.

That was an intense download

I want to understand the 'double.' Rudolf Steiner said, "See it from my time and perspective and then look at it again from your own point of view." So I saw that it is not a content, it is through the process of materialistic thinking, feeling and willing that the double grows and develops. The extremes of light and dark obscure the truth of the middle path of observation and the resulting objective conclusions and concepts that can arise in too much of the brilliant light of luciferic intellectuality, burns out the normal logical, sequential, realistic truth and leaves illusions and inflamed egotistical delusions in the void spaces.

Dark materialistic observations and conclusions drag the thinking into dark matter and the thinking process becomes mired in dead-end, dense, materialistic conclusions that do not breathe with life. The resulting concepts are bound to earthly matter and do not rise to the cosmic overview. The 'double' is that thinking personified as the shadow of the true individual.

The thinking process – the attention and consciousness of each individual runs along certain pathways:

Luciferic thinking is all up ion the astral realms – the macro-cosmic realms and hence the attention and consciousness do not penetrate into the 'real' world of integrated physical, etheric and astral bodies penetrated and motivated by the mature Ego/I.

Ahrimanic thinking processes do not rise above a fascination and manipulation of physical laws and parameters which are imposed over the true functions of the etheric, astral and Ego/I realities. Hence, physical limitations constrain the higher members of the individual.

The 'double' is the anthropomorphized being who is the result and extension of the ahrimanic, materialistic thinking. Because it is not based on human interaction, the 'double' itself is not resolved in kamaloka. The resulting interactions with friends and family are the 'meat and potatoes' of the kamaloka resolutions. However, the ensouled ahrimanic being who inhabits the materialistic thought process, unless recognized and redeemed in life, waits in the sphere between the etheric and astral worlds. (the cubbies of St. Peter in the Esoteric Christian Chapter of Lucid Death: Conscious Journeys Beyond the Threshold.) The 'double' rejoins the next incarnation near birth.

Our processes must be reclaimed during life. The resulting actions and relationships based on either luciferic or ahrimanic 'double' influence will be resolved in kamaloka. This is why we must penetrate all aspects of the physical, etheric and astral bodies, and our thinking feeling and willing, with our conscious Ego/I: to learn to master all aspects of existence so that eventually – far away – eventually we will be the creators of new worlds.

At this time in history, we humans are abdicating our rights and duties to Ahriman. We must reclaim those rights and duties and organize life in accordance and harmony with the positive, forward evolutionary thrust of the cosmic Christ

Thursday, February 12, 2015 – Soquel, California

More on the 'double.' All opposition must be redeemed, synergized, metamorphosed, and transformed into positive forces for forward evolution. The double in the accumulated residues of negative encounters with the natural world through lifetimes, and although they are personal, they are not interpersonal with other human beings. They are the result of either unconscious or negative responses to the elemental beings who create manifested existence.

It is becoming ever more important that humans ensoul their exchanges and interactions with the beings of the material world and the animators of the lower ethers. Especially now, as Christ has ascended into the astral world, we humans are responsible for ensouling, enlivening and flooding with benevolent consciousness, the etheric worlds. We must raise ourselves consciously into the etheric world and fill it with impulses for positive evolution.

The dregs of our past (in this lifetime and some unreclaimed residues of past lives) must be reclaimed, healed and filled with the consciousness of "Christ in me" and the compassionate pouring of unconditional love into the ethers, warming and transforming the beings caught there in the unconscious, uncaring and despising limits of human/Elemental relations.

The electro/magnetic forces are themselves, neutral forces. Without them we would not think, feel or live. It is the quality of or consciousness that validates or vilifies. We must remain sovereign within our bodies and assure that the electro/magnetic forces are infused with intelligent, loving and disciplined consciousness.

“It is difficult to discern properly, the goals and motives of others, especially if those others are of extra-terrestrial origin. Numbers of people in the space program and the secret space program fell prey to the influences and even outright domination and possession by entities from outer space. They are all so different from each other. Some are divinely loving and it is a serene pleasure to be in their presence. Some can possess the minds of others, humans included, and it is dangerous even to be around them. Others can manipulate the body functions through telepathy. And some can 'eat' the individuality, the divine spark, and since we are still functioning in 3-D, can possess the body, digest the soul and live their own agenda in the person's body. They, the people, are not at home in their bodies, and will never return to incarnations on Earth. This is where the 'zombie' fascination comes from now. It is no longer just a case of discarnate human souls stuck in the ethers and lower astral worlds after death. It is human bodies without human souls or consciousness that are inhabited by a pernicious extra-terrestrial force with an anti-life agenda.”

“We human beings have to agree to let them in to take over. We are tempted to that in various ways that the Azura's, for that is who they are, tailor to each person's personal weaknesses and failings. Sheer ignorance and the abandonment of human values and qualities, replaced by mechanistic materialism is an open invitation to them. Such naive and retrograde personalities consider the Azura's offers to be fantastic advantages and highly desirable. Hence the proliferation one sees in many cultures around the world to embrace the 'new scientific' (ahrimanic) discoveries as fabulous, such as GMOs, cloning, atomic energy, etc. One also sees the adoration and emulation of the vapid western lifestyle of the neuvo riche billionaires, jet setters, the famous, and financiers. Lies and deceit are hailed as the new aggressive modus operendi, humanity is reduced to a number – the list goes on and on.”

March 30, 2016

I asked, “Are the Greys under the dark cloak of Ahriman*?” Arihimsa answered, “Yes, Ahriman is another very high being in charge of the excess of contraction, individuals as numbers, atrophy of emotions, calculating technology, and cold malice. The Grey's planet and culture fell long ago into his complete power. They did not rise above the distortion of materialism and the eradication of all memory of connection to the beings of the spiritual worlds. They now are sweeping this quadrant of the galaxy, scavenging genetic material and moving in and taking over wherever possible.

Humans must awaken to this fact. The question of the hybrids* is a deep one and it remains to be seen if education and a loving upbringing can stabilize the human qualities over time. Halo* is doing a very good job of it. She was fortunate to have Kienda as her surrogate mother, as was Shushilla* – the product of a bold experiment by the Procyon faction among others, my race included, as was Siridon* and Gregor's* of the Galactic Federation* to make the transformation of the reptilian brain stem a little easier, and influence humanity to being amenable to change and transformation. That experiment has been a success on many other planets also. It is working here too. Just unfortunate about the warring factions (Greys, Reptilians and others) taking over the Federation Mother Ship* that Siridon, Ahh, Bey, and Tsey* worked on. However, when enough humans have mastered their minds, emotions, and will forces, they can carry those who did not receive the golden egg up with them in a compassionate gesture of inclusion."

"But the implantation by Lucifer* of himself and his minions into human astral bodies, was a worm and a canker that destroyed from within. And when Ahriman* came on the scene, it was clear that our work here was done. There was little we could do to stem the tide of violence, fear, anger, and the evil men chose to do. We left this beautiful home away from home and travelled out to assist other planets and their evolution. In the annals of this galaxy we are known by many different names. We are a major force in the evolutionary thrust to the positive. And, yes, I also affirm Lord Rugadump's story." Arihimsa smiled broadly and said, "Let me sing you a little song of creation. Thank you." And he began to sing.

Thursday Morning – March 31, 2016 – Marin Valley, California

I have been thinking about Lucifer*, Ahriman* and the Azuras* as Extra-Terrestrials. "It is accurate." said Edgar. "And stunning." I added. The meeting started and I continued to reflect on what I know from Steiner* and my own experiences of the nature of evil/opposition and Lucifer, Ahriman, and the Azuras. Lucifer is clearly a Reptilian, it even says so in the Bible. Ahriman is the contracted force of cold malice, as stated before. The Greys are an example of a race and culture that has been manipulated to become ahrimanic minions throughout the galaxy. Although the Azuras have come on to our home planet, and they have been observed by myself and other, I am not able to correlate them to an ET life form, yet. Rudolf Steiner said they appeared as spiders, so they are probably one of the insectoid, arachnoid races that will come to our awareness soon. I do not need to go looking for them, yet.

April 30, 2016

Forces, other than natural earthly energies and spiritual hierarchical beings working for the good of earth in human evolution, have come on planet and are seriously disrupting the flow. Through the influence of Ahriman, materialism has cannibalized the spirit. The clockwork cosmos is still for many – especially those who have wrested power and control from the natural, appropriate sources and people into their own claws/hands – the working model of the world and humanity. This is a perversion and in opposition to the natural, human-based values that are appropriate for earth existence at this time. The present dominating mindset is not humanly based but instead, denigrates true human values and supplants mechanistic, animalistic, and demonic values in their stead.

There need to be enough humans awake and making changes within themselves, not to leave a hole in the hierarchies of vibratory rates. A hole would be filled by retarded beings of the rank of the angels who are under the sway of Ahriman*.

Friday, February 10, 2017 – Santa Fe, New Mexico

“Yes, get your work done. Yes, get up here, girl.” Edgar called to me as I was waffling around in my meditations. “There is work to do and serious questions to be answered. Then we all can finish up this past phase of our work together and get onto immediate issues such as: who or what are the unseen spiritual forces behind contemporary issues.”

And I saw hosts of luciferic, ahrimanic, and azuric beings clustered in the ethers and astral layers of the earth. So I asked Edgar and the team, “What is the purpose of understanding this – of knowing who is behind current events and influencing people and life?” Then I heard, “the truth will set you free.” And I saw that where we humans do not have correct information and so do not know the truth, there are dark and unconscious areas in our mind and heart’s.

These dark spaces are filled within our human psyche and feelings by astral ahrimanic and luciferic beings. We have no control over them because we are not aware of their existence. They control us in our thinking and feeling. We experience the effects of the dark ahrimanic and luciferic beings as our own thoughts and emotions, because they work in the subconscious areas of our lives that we have not brought to clear understanding, and therefore have not taken responsibility for our own thoughts, feelings, and the resulting actions in the world.

Once again, this points to the necessity of doing inner work. When one has bravely and carefully searched inside one’s self and into one’s past, and brought the clear light of conscious awareness into all aspects of oneself, one takes responsibility for those thoughts and feelings and can respond to life experiences out of choice rather than dark unconscious influences of fear, greed, and other deadly sins.

Worse yet, there are falsehoods, lies, and deceptions, which obscure reality – twisting and distorting truth. When we are not in sympathetic vibration or empathy with the positive evolutionary spiritual impulses of our time, we experience dissonance – dis-ease and dis-comfort in our bodies, souls, and spirits which causes physical illness, inappropriate behavior, and unconscious instinctive reactions to life’s experiences.

Most often, these responses to life are fear-based, because when the perceptions of reality are skewed, there is an unpleasant resonance set up within us. We can't understand what is happening – feel attacked – and so respond violently and fearfully towards anyone and everything that approaches us in such manner.

After a long time of behaving from such distorted motives, it becomes habitual and then people work to legitimize and institutionalize such negative and inhuman behaviors. We are in the midst of such a crisis right now.

November 18, 2016

In hindsight, I see the ahrimanic and luciferic expressions – colours and costumes etc. – of the beings I perceived. Was it just my eagerness that brought them to me – my own faults? Yes. It is my own unconsciously unredeemed aspects that gave them the floor, the opportunity to manifest and tempt me down a side path.

The blue ninja ahrimanic entity said, just now, "I am me and not yours. I just took the opportunity to step in." But since you did step into me Makienda Tae Bettrue, I accept responsibility for you. The ahrimanic being then showed me his life and I asked if it didn't feel hollow and have no meaning. He agreed and wept a tear or two. I asked him to look to Christ and he did. He will be going to school now to learn the meanings behind his life and learn how to choose new ones.
