The Oil Spill in the Gulf of Mexico

The dark forces want to hasten the end of oil to be able to tighten control through chaos, by using scarcity and pollution. They are aware that subterranean forces are being unleashed on the surface of the earth, and that they will poison the whole area. A visible black plume vaporized into the atmosphere and continues to spread with the actual oil spill on the water. (Ignazio said, the rarefication and separation of substances is a means of rapid evolution. R.S. Refers to the flame producing light and heat upwards and casts down the ash, as an example.) This is not really happening on the physical level with the oil. The sub-subterranean forces are merely rising to the surface of the sea and volatilizing. The oil becomes a parasite. It penetrates into all it touches, invading beyond the surface of flesh, feather, fin or fur, and it poisons everything. The oil and the forces in it withers and damages the etheric body as well. (This is explained in the lecture by Arenson on "The Interior of the Earth.." The second substrata of the earth is the "fluidic earth" which is the opposite of the etheric world above the physical. It annihilates all etheric life. And I think that the oil reserves are in this strata of the earth and so without careful extraction and refining, the elementals of the etheric-destroying 'fluidic earth' strata are now running amok in the gulf of Mexico.)

Oil is made of once-living plant substances which were animated by etheric forces. Those substances, etheric forces and attendant elemental beings were trapped millions of years ago and transformed under intense pressure and heat in the darkness of the lower strata of the earth. Now with the spill which is coming from deep within the earth and below the sea, those elemental forces are released and expand into the atmosphere in a dark angry cloud of etheric pollution. They have evolved for these many years in darkness and are now released into the light at last. The elementals in the black plume, arising from the spreading oil spill, are furiously angry. They have not been allowed into the light for millions of years, they have been trapped – imprisoned. They are hateful and bitter, and vengeful.

(Ig asked, "Is it OK to refine and burn the oil?") That's OK, from the human side, but the Elementals would prefer to enter the light directly. (Ig asked again, What do the elementals seek?) They were buried in the lark long before Christ came. They seek to enter the light of Christ, but do not know him. They need to be educated and informed.

(We asked, What can be done?) There is nothing that you or any other human being can do now. Nature herself will furnish the balancing force through volcanic activity and lightning. The volcano in Guatemala has released a plume of white etheric forces. These elementals have gone through the refiners fire, the crucible of the volcano, nearer the surface of the earth and been transformed and purified. More volcanic activity and lightning is needed to balance what has happened for so long in damaging the ecology of the earth. I see that the black angry forces are meeting the Christ force in the white plume of the volcano. Christ is embracing the two clouds and the white forces are healing and soothing the black ones. The ash is purified matter refined in the volcanic crucible. It is sacred and rains down on everything, blessing the earth and fertilizing all plant life. Everything grew fabulously and the flowers were especially gorgeous for years after Mount Saint Helen blew.

(Did St. Helen's coincide with the Valdez oil spill? And, at the time when the Gulf spill was finally being contained, there were massive lightning storms in northern California – 500 small fires were started because there was no rain, just lightning, and on the east coast, at least in Ashville North Carolina, there were lightning storms also.)

June 18, 2010, Friday

The mystery centers knew of the coming of the Christ – Hibernia – St. Bride – the center in the Gobi desert - the Magi from many cults were aware in the etheric worlds of the changes coming. The Three Wise Men were the physical representatives of the main mystery centers and their participation in the spiritual phenomena.

The evolution of Evil from physical, astral, pain and blood; and the mental, etheric evil of the perverted Scholasticism of the times, were two streams for schooling humans into evil. The first was brutal, physical, pain centered and developed a negative emotional response. Torture, pain and suffering were the methods employed and the emotions of anger, hatred, fear and repulsion were fanned to a frenzy, overcoming clear ego-centered thoughts and emotions.

The second stream affected the mental and etheric bodies of its victims. The tools were materialism and science, and cold, calculated human behavior. Fear of the unknown and loss of meaning and value in life, engendered mental anguish and angst.

One of the biggest waves of Evil resulted in WWI and WWII, where everything human was at stake and under attack. It was a free-for-all of warring elements – brutal and intellectual. The dark mysteries were doing the most violent activities they could to nip in the bud, humanity's awareness of Christ's second coming and spiritual deeds in the etheric world. To this end, the atomic bomb was developed which destroyed matter in order to release the etheric force within the atom to cause massive death and destruction. The very life force of the cosmos was harnessed for its opposite – annihilation.

Where are the forces of Light during all this? There were always centers of light and occult wisdom – Theosophy, anthroposophy, the Christian Community Church, Rosicrucianism, and the French Resistance. The Resistance movement in all countries, was a special opportunity for people to learn to band together and to trust one another – all this below the apparent surface of society. It brought people together from different walks of life, and different beliefs and religions. They had to trust only a few individual contacts and then trust in the larger number of unknown people within the whole Resistance movement. The French Resistance happened spontaneously in the face of great evil, and is a model for ordinary people co-operating together in trust.

Now the gods of the retarded mysteries want their power back. The gods of war and those that inspired the atomic bomb were the ancient gods responsible for the destruction of Atlantis. As humanity moved forward on their slow evolutionary march, leaving the old religions and rites in the past, and moving into the future, the ancient gods did not want to give up or change their old ways. They were used to receiving energy and adoration and sacrifice, and wanted blood, still. They found that instigating war brought them the sacrificial blood they craved. It is still going on.

We humans must stop playing their games. We must choose loving human activities of our own free will. We can do it. We must do it. As Atlantis was destroyed by greed, lust for power, and the misuse of human energy and blood – the sacred physical carrier of the divine Ego/I – so too is our 'world' in danger of deathly pollution and cataclysm. The earth is in need of cleansing and detoxifying. Humanity should not be toxic to its own home environment. Have we not learned not to foul our own nest? Christ in the physical has overcome death. Christ in the etheric world offers the overcoming of the pollution and diseases in the etheric worlds – within the earthly etheric body and within the individual human etheric body. What Christ has done, we, humanity, shall do also. So, let's.

Saturday, June 19, 2010 My question for the meditation was:

What is lawful for me to do in the spiritual worlds?

As a living human being, I have free will. If my bodies are “purified” and I can vibrate and move consciously within each world/realm/dimension and know the laws and abide by them, I am free to do what I perceive is right. The hierarchy are not so free and there just is no question about choice in doing what is correct there. If they do anything differently or not within the vibratory rate of that spiritual dimension, then they are automatically expelled from that region and find themselves in the vibratory world equal to themselves. “Like attracts like.” Which is how Lucifer dropped from his high station to the astral world of Earth.

So what about these wars in Heaven?

At varying and rhythmic times, beings of the different hierarchies and different realms have gathered in pockets or clusters of themselves that are moving in a contrary manner. At first, these pockets are small, but when they get larger and take up more space, and cause problems, like noise and kerfuffle and pollution, then they must be removed, and sometimes forcibly by St Michael and his hosts. In a sense, they become too heavy and dark and precipitate out of their own sphere and drop down into a lower one. (It's like water – steam and water and ice.) The divergent groups then are given realms and vibratory fields that fit their own energy level. Quite a few of differing negative persuasions were sent into Earth's etheric and astral fields in order to hopefully evolve upward with humanity – a dogged and plucky little race now plowing through 3 D. Now that they – the fallen angels and others – are here they want to take Earth and human evolution over for themselves. However, that is not lawful. So Michael's clean up committee is scheduled to come and do a sweep again in the near future and Christ and his helpers are on duty, cleaning up human etheric and astral bodies, so that they will no longer vibrate at a lower speed which is an invitation to lower speed fallen angels to party in their etheric and astral bodies. Each human must raise their own vibration to higher levels and thereby automatically expel any lower vibrational entities – either from the ranks of fallen spiritual beings, or lost human souls who want to inhabit and influence them.

So what can I lawfully do to help myself and other human beings?

Each human is sovereign in their own bodies = etheric, astral, mental and physical. However, because we are not done yet – have not penetrated every aspect of ourselves with the higher vibrational frequencies of Christed thinking and clear consciousness, and then manifested and applied it clearly and consciously to every aspect of ourselves; we are vulnerable to invasion and co-option and possession on every level, physical, etheric, astral and mental. The way to help is to inspire and awaken consciousness within oneself and others. There are many ways to do that – art, music, talking, sharing information. All things are appropriate and lawful within consciousness. Super sensible help must be agreed to. When a person is already asking inwardly is best, but offering is also fair.

In the case of my daughters, they have all said “OK” to my offers to help and do inner work and healing.

Sunday June 4, 2010

We can see the effects of the dark side and the loss of innate humanity in our fellow human beings and still keep joy and love in our hearts, and compassion for those who are not able to find those resources within themselves, or who have perhaps even capitulated and work consciously for the dark side. That stance does not preclude the “Paralandra” conundrum. If something truly evil is being done to innocence, it must be stopped. There are moral imperatives towards right action to stop the harm without harming. It is lawful to instigate change toward the positive by appropriate steps of confrontation, active resistance, and speaking the truth as one perceives it; all done with compassion for the aggressors who need love, kindness, and compassion. The possessing demons of sadness, sloth, anger, fear, greed, lust and gluttony (anyway, the seven deadly sins) must be exorcised, routed, flushed out, and banished from their trespassed abodes in human hearts, souls, minds, and bodies. The reptilian brain stem is not only a physical evolutionary step but an intervention by Lucifer who is reptilian.

Human-kind is coming to a point of division again. We are all, the "family of man" so humans who have capitulated to the dark side are only rightly called the black sheep of the family. They are our errant brothers and sisters.

November 13, 2012 – Tuesday – the Ranch in the Sierras

I read volume III of the Karmic Relationships cycle, by Rudolf Steiner, which deals with St Michael, cosmic and Earthly intelligence, and the Anthroposophical Society. Steiner uses the word “tragedy” a number of times when referring to the angels siding with Earthly intelligence rather than the just ministrations of Michael, who keeps the cosmic perspective when guiding personal human intelligence. A number of people's angels (at their subconscious request, by materialistic thinking) have fallen to an Earthly materialistic existence which is dangerously and tragically subject to Ahrimanic influence and take over.

This is the reason for the chaos in human karma and relationships, culture and society, and (I think) the failure of Anthroposophy. Yes, there are a few little communities and good striving people, but even the Waldorf Schools are not active, working centers of light, information, or intelligence to inform parents of real issues, such as GMOs and vaccines, for example. It seems that they don't want to rock the boat or bring up controversy.

There are many critical issues in these changing times. “To GMO or not to GMO?” that is a real question with far reaching effects. Atomic energy or natural alternatives like sun, wind and water power, not to mention Tesla's Earth forces? The role of institutional education in the growth and development of the individual human?

Sunday, Sept. 12, 2010 – Up the Hill at Sunrise

I intended on insight into what I could do to help a few people, but instead I got impaled again. There were two past lives where I was impaled at the request of the Himmler entelechy. One in Thrace on the Black Sea, centuries B.C. and also by Vlad the Impaler in the 1300s. Both experiences were extremely traumatic and since having discovered them, I have been struggling with understanding how such things could happen. I needed to understand what that was all about before I can let it go. So, I have been writhing on my stake and watching others die and have now finally understood and taken action. Everyone who suffered such a fate is lying peacefully on the ground and being covered in warm, moist, caressing soil. They are finally laid to rest. Their souls are in the hands of their angels and they are being soothed and cared for in the spirit worlds.

So in pre-Christian times when the religions and mysteries were already desperate because they were losing their connection to the spiritual worlds, and humanity was flapping and floundering on Earth, the dark forces were already at work damaging the etheric and physical bodies as intensely as they could. The pain and suffering of the long, slow death of impalement, was impossible for the ego to bear, so the ego removed itself from the body. Because it was still attached to the body as long as life was in it, the soul was not free to go into the spiritual worlds completely. Understandably, the emotions were in a state of rage, anger, fear, sorrow and other negative feelings. The wails and sounds of the many! dying people, cursing God and life, and the insurmountable pain that flowed into the sound ether, ripped it to shreds. The souls were then possessed by luciferic minions and opportunistic dark beings who easily resonated with such feelings. The ground was polluted with the angry blood of hundreds of thousands of unfortunate humanity.

Understanding today, the traumas of the past, has released a lot of traumatized parts of myself. It has helped, at least.

November, 5, 2010, Afternoon Meditation – Olympia, Washington

It has to do with elimination and letting go. The Tan Tien is the retort, or crucible and the root chakra is the Bunsen burner or the acetylene torch. The passions are the fuel to transform and create anew.

So I began to collect up all the fear of the millennia and the residue of the pain and sorrow and anguish – all the sad and terrible things that have been done to humanity - all that our work on the “Devolution of Evil” has brought before my soul. And I began to scrape the black sticky residue of fear, despair, pain, hatred, and betrayal, from off the souls of my past incarnations. Then it became clear to me that if I can do this for my own self, then I can do it for others as well.

So from the first impaling, I took my body down and my daughter’s body and then called on the angels of everyone who had suffered this fate, to take the bodies down. They, the bodies, were laid at the foot of their stakes and everyone smiled and breathed a sigh of relief and then still smiling, melted into the warm embracing earth. Mother Earth was overjoyed and lightened and brightened to receive happy, peaceful bodies into herself – and she felt honored and grateful and glowed. Then we all touched the stakes and they put forth leaves and blossoms and grew as a lovely forest over all the middle east and up into Eastern Europe.

I then moved forward to the time of Christ and the Christian martyrs. They lay down peacefully in the coliseum and such places as they had died, and smiled and were absorbed into the earth. Their souls were already long gone in the spiritual world. The lions and wild beasts purred and kiss/licked gently their faces before they disappeared.

Then the black plague and the dark and middle ages, the inquisitions and other such atrocities were up next for healing. Now I was not only sopping up the coagulated, and dried blood and the black tarry residue of terror, but used the Shroud of Turin to mop up the last bits and polish the ages to a shine. Christ’s suffering and task was so much more and cosmic, that the shreds of human fear and sorrow were simply absorbed and cleared.

So on to the inquisitions and the Native genocides in South and North America. Then to Kohlburg. I scraped and scrubbed till the stone slabs were shining white and the walls sparkled. On to the French and American revolutions and all the detritus of the Reign of Terror – the Crimean War, the 30 Years War, the 100 Years War, and on and on through wars and uprisings and evolutions. The Russian Revolution seemed very important. As all the millions of peasants were being laid to a peaceful smiling rest in the earth that they so loved – they hallowed the ground and the Russian Souls for the Jupiter evolution. I wiped each face with the Shroud and they shone.

Then to WWI and WWII, and the holocaust – all at rest and at peace. The Earth herself is so much more light filled and at peace. The “unquiet dead” have experienced a bit of peace and honor.

I am only one person and I have only done one little thing. I have not healed it all. I have only touched a fraction, a tiny fraction of what needs healing in the world and throughout history. It is the crucified Christ who transforms the suffering of humankind. I just asked for his help and participation. Seek and you shall find, ask and it shall be given unto you. So I sought and asked, and He answered.

So for myself. All those lifetimes that were so steeped in pain and sorrow and fear have been cleaned up and shine brightly now along my timeline. There is more to do – to forgive and eliminate and let go of all this black stuff. So I put it in the crucible and stoked up the flame with my passion for love and nurturance and peace and joy and a beautiful glowing contented earth. And it’s the end of that world as I knew it, and I feel fine.

Thursday, July 28, 2011 - 2pm Meditation – Olympia

I was late again to the classes in the New Jerusalem because I am hung up again on Vlad the Impaler, and the rips and tears in the sound ether. I saw Mother Gaia holding Earth and combing out the sound ethers like untangling hair. The smoothed combed hair became strings on a harp-like instrument. She strummed the healed sound etheric strings and sang and crooned, and brushed away all the pain and hurt and made beautiful the sounds in the ethers. The tears were rewoven with her melody. Now, at last, I am at peace with those past lives.

Saturday, April 21, 2012 – Laurence Kansas – Ricks Hacienda

After all this clarity and timeline information, thoughts of “Monsanto” intruded. I asked, “Is this a spiritual issue?” and the voice answered, “Yes, my Dear, it absolutely is. This Monsanto issue is part of the war against life and against positive evolution. The human beings involved are pawns in the game of war, which is being played out by the positive and negative aspects of many hierarchies. Each human being must speak and stand for their beliefs, goals, desires, and understandings. In that way, individual human beings align themselves with the forces and beings on either side. The sleepers and non-committed are responsible through sins of omission. The greedy and materialistic will reap the karma of choosing the dark, retarding side of devolution. Those who can awaken to an understanding of the forces at play in this 'war' and align their beliefs, goals and desires with Christ – the cosmic Lord of Karma, and proper Earth evolution, will be inspired to appropriate action. One of the keys is to become informed and aware of the spiritual forces and beings behind the human, Earthly issues. The positive forces and beings will only offer inspiration freely, and it must be freely accepted by each individual. We must make a conscious choice and act upon it. There are no strings attached and no external rewards for choosing the path of truth and life.

The opposition works in other ways – through the darkness that is created within human consciousness by excessive materialistic thought, or unquestioningly adopting fundamentalist philosophical, religious, or political dogma. The oppositional beings and forces have access to the human mind through such unenlightened states. They take advantage of such static, unreflective consciousness and live in the unconscious realms, thus possessing the dark unconscious of many people and wickedly influencing the motives, thoughts and lives of those they inhabit.

Beings of the higher hierarchies and other dimensions are always within us, as we also have faculties and 'bodies' in the subtle realms within us. The issue or question is; who do we choose to be hosts to? By open-mindedness, tempered and subject to discernment; clear thinking; compassionate understanding; and intelligent Christed consciousness; only positive beings can exist within us. The dark side cannot bear to live in such light. Dogmatic, unquestioning, unexplored thinking is not light filled, and so increases the realm of the personal unconscious, by heaping boulders of unconsidered thought into the subconscious. The sub or unconscious is the shadow side of clear, compassionate, awake consciousness.

We, as humans, need to minimize the unconscious – the source of our instincts and unenlightened, often trauma induced, impulses, thoughts, feelings, and motives. It is through intelligent, compassionate thinking and feeling that we shine the light of consciousness into the dark places of our soul. It is in perceiving and recognizing the dark unconscious within ourselves, that we begin the journey of reclamation of our shadows. When we understand what our individual shadow consists of, and why it is there within us, then from a more mature and expansive state of consciousness, we can transform it by responding to the needs and wants that began usually through trauma in early life, as well as sorrows and fears we were unable to process our whole life long.

Edited to Here**

All humans have issues, problems, and traumas, instigated through the karmic vicissitudes of our lives. We can no longer afford to stuff them down below consciousness. There they fester and create the perfect environment for retardant beings. We must work to bring our experiences into the clear light of day consciousness. By compassionately confronting the traumatic situations, and through loving our human frailties, we heal them. With loving comprehension, failings and weaknesses can be transmuted into strong allies. Then the shadow becomes light, the darkness recedes, and the beings who used the unconscious as a platform for pushing their agenda into the world through ignorant human life, is diminished, and they can no longer remain within one. The light of consciousness and love replaces and burns away the darkness of the fearful, unperceived and unknown subconscious.

When we have the desire to do this work, the freely offered inspiration of the kind beings of evolution becomes available. As we choose to accept our intuitive flashes and insights and to find the will to act upon them, we can transform the present situations facing us all on planet Earth today; and instead of being headed for an environmental disaster of a dire, critical nature, we will be launching the next Golden Age.

SUNDAY, April 15, 2012 – Somewhere in Missouri

So rising above the Earth and looking down from the 'donut', which is half way to the moon, I see a thick black-gray cloud boiling out of Europe and covering a lot of the Northern Hemisphere. It is a thought obscuring cloud of darkness and it is moving west across America, and spreading east towards China and Japan. It is a humanly created mind fog from the powers that have wrested control of the Earth. The only way to think clearly is to rise above it in consciousness into the higher worlds. I am wishing for other clairvoyants to share with about these things.

The Illuminati are luciferic-being-possessed humans. The tendrils of their control go down into every aspect of human life. They hold the strands of control in every arena – especially the barbarous ones like the government, the millionaires, the religions, banking and the elite groups within every organization, the Masons, spiritual movements – everything. We need help getting out from under their thumb of control.

With dense obscuring clouds of control rolling over the northern hemisphere, we must work hard individually for clarity. Nothing can be taken for granted. Is Australia the place to be? No place is immune. Duality – light and dark are everywhere. We must just individually keep the faith

December 8, 2012 – Saturday – Sand Diego, California

Today was a heavy, day of not feeling that well. I am putting myself together after a 24 hour flu which purged and cleansed me and left me tired and a bit vulnerable. I went with Mark to hear Adjashanti talk, and he was the best of class of the Hindu/Buddhist/American gurus. Which only means that he is seductively tempting. It almost makes sense – what he says, but through it all are little jibs and put-downs of 'Jesus,' knowledge, understanding, ego, identity, etc. He speaks in abstractions and generalities only, as well as in purloined parables and quotes. "Let go," is a favorite phrase, but at no time is there anything more descriptive or precise – no clarity as to what level or aspect of what reality or dimension is appropriately 'let go of.' Nor are any techniques or practices given. It's just a general command - "let go." No wonder the woman who spoke was gray-faced. She is struggling with no real guidance – just a judgment that whatever she thinks, feels, does and is, is wrong and must be let go of. Hopefully, he, himself, has no idea of the jeopardy and consequences of what he is telling people, otherwise, he is peddling evil in a civilized, 21st century guise.

The following is my meditative state this Saturday morning.

My inertia is too great. The turgid inertia of the human race is too great. We have not been able to overcome the evil that has been let loose on and in the world. Christ came and seeded the potential, but the dark side and the excess light side and the opponents to the developing human ego (Ahriman, Lucifer and the Azuras) have woven a very tight web around the Earth. Now with the GMOs and radiation and HAARP, and climate change, everyone is falling prey and victim of the forces in opposition to human evolution.

The manly, mish-mash new age is a play of evil. Mark thinks those people are enlightened. However, I feel and think they are (and I am not sure about which, but either witting or unwitting) pawns – wealthy, smug and deluded – in the game evil plays, which is three-fold – Lucifer, Ahriman, and the Azuras.

LUCIFER - "All this messy human living is such a bother. Lets get off this wheel and ascend into the pure and holy spirit worlds. I'm OK, you're OK, everything's OK. We are all one and all hunky dory. Its all in your mind anyway. We are making up this illusion of life, so just be happy. Everything is OK. Don't soil your hands mucking about on Earth. Lets hear it for sex, drugs, rock 'n' roll, football that we can watch in safety and comfort, TV, entertainment and pseudo-spiritual pleasures – anything to get our minds off our pitiful, little existence. Its easy – just say "no" to Earth life. Instead, live in the lovely spiritual creations of the mind. Let the soothing emotions and endorphins flow."

Lucifer intervened in Earth evolution in Lemuria at the time designated as "the Fall." According to the Bible, Lucifer was the regent of the morning star, Venus – although there is some question as to the correct naming of Venus and Mercury. He was an Archai who had accepted the task of playing the part of the dark side – or in this case, the excessive light side, as a goad to consciousness and a force for humans to 'bump up against.' In this way humanity could become conscious of the duality of physical existence and evolve through dynamic interaction. Freedom and choice became possible through Lucifer's actions. He is not neutral, however, but tempts mankind into a particular direction.

Lucifer works through the astral, emotional body to influence humanity to prematurely withdraw from appropriate evolution. We are to become as Christ – as gods – and in time, to function consciously in the cosmos. But, Lucifer would lead us to believe that we can ascend into the pure, untrammled spiritual worlds and avoid all that distressing growth and development.

Falling for the Luciferic temptation results in lifting off of the Earth into an illusionary world of bliss, ignorance, and adamant self-delusion, by whatever means is most attractive and available – drugs, psychedelics, alcohol, fuzzy meditations that lead to suppression of consciousness or only consider the unconcerned union with divine oneness as the only goal in human life. He and his minions would like humanity to remove themselves from the Earth and leave it to him.

AHRIMAN, on the other hand, says, "Oh, no you don't. You can't get away from the Earth – its all there is. What you see is what you get so get it while you can. Grab what you want when you want it. Physical stuff is for the grabbing. Science is god. You can weigh and measure only what is real and true. There is nothing else. Karma? Ha! Reincarnation? Ha ha!! Death is the absolute end of existence, so satisfy all Earthly desires – after all, that's what they are there for. You're a fool if you don't and a sitting duck for those that do.”

The results of following Ahriman's seductive call is atheism, sclerotic, science-bound thinking, and amorality which is immoral. The soul of humanity is denied existence and eradicated. The senses are the boundary of existence. Ahriman wishes to lead humanity downward into Earth-bound, only sense directed life. His is a 'dog eat dog' kind of existence – or maybe its 'big fish eat little fish.' That may be true in some aspects of nature, but it is not applicable to the human soul and spirit.

Ahriman leads the thinking astray through influence in the etheric body. Technology has been developed that harms the etheric body as well as the physical. DNA is the physical touch-point and carrier of the archetypal etheric pattern of evolutionary potential for each species and each individual. DNA can be damaged and mutated by radiation, GMO tampering, EMF and HAARP vibrations and many other ways. The whole Earth and all of humanity is under attack by these means.

And then there are THE AZURAS. In the 1920s, Rudolf Steiner said they would come onto the Earth from the cosmos (outer space) through a world-wide web. The physical manifestations of Ahriman – science and technology that do not admit the existence of spirit and the value of the individuality – are the medium through which the Azuras work. They are intent upon destroying the core identity of humanity – they are bent on annihilating the human ego, the higher self of the human spirit.

This they do in ways which have taken social forms. Humanity can be reduced to a meaningless number through politics, the educational system, the health and social systems – in fact, all systems in which individual needs are not considered, much less met. Corporations as individuals with legal rights but no responsibilities to humanity, are a perfect example of the results of Azuric influence. An educational system where the dollar is the bottom line and the lowest common denominator is the rigidly-held standard to which all children must perform, is another. Punitive and judgmental social systems which shame and degrade, political and financial institutions which victimize the populations they were created to support, are all inspired by the Azuras.

December 11, 2012 – San Diego, California

This morning I had an experience with Dezi, the daughter of Gerry, a friend of Janet's, from the traveling ladies circle. We had a pot-luck lunch and birthday party with them yesterday at Gerry's beautiful house in the hills of La Jolla with a view that went down to Tijuana. Dezi is experiencing adult onset schizophrenia and has for a few years. She was only months away from her doctorate from Cal Berkeley, when she crashed and burned – as they say.

Today, I saw that Dezi has a funnel attached to her that catches other people and brings them and their etheric soul forces down into her aura. She grabs them and stuffs them into the cracks of her fractured self. Sh and I tussled a bit as she grabbed me and tried to force me down, but I said, " I do not intend to interfere, but this is not appropriate to do to another human person. The only one who can heal this is Christ – and I do not just mean Jesus, the nice man from Nazareth. Christ is the higher self of all humanity. Since you, Dezi, have called me in here, I am free to call in Christ." So I did and he came.

The force of the Christ light began to push out the trapped energies of other people that had been stuffed in the cracks like old sox and rags into holes in a wall. It went on for a while with little popping noises as the soul parts popped out of the cracks, unfurled, and shook themselves out to their full size. Their angels came to collect the parts and pieces and return them to the people to whom they belong. Now I see Dezi as a fractured being with light pouring out of all the cracks.

I would like to know what her doctorate was about and what happened to fracture her. I think it has to do with materialistic thinking which became so sclerotic, harder, and more and more compressed and constricted. Then some trauma was orchestrated by the dark side, and because she had lost all flexibility of thought, she shattered. Negative possessing entities rushed in and she has never yet been able to reclaim herself. What is her Doctoral Dissertation on, and what was the trauma that broke her hold on reality? I can't see the subject of her study, but there was substance abuse – alcohol?, drugs?, psychedelics in the part punch? Something tipped her over. Was it perhaps an inadvertent overdose of something because a relationship was going bad?

Whatever the explosion was that fractured Dezi, it damaged her angel also. Her wings were all burned black and dripping with a tarry substance. She could not help Dezi at all, but needed help herself.

Dezi and I asked Christ to help her angel and she was taken to the angel hospital and healing spa. I asked Dezi if she would like help and protection from the Warriors of the Rainbow Light while her angel is healing, and she said, "yes." Four of them came to guard her. Then I asked if she would like to say goodbye to the voices that keep her so busy and away from life. I suggested that if she did let them go, she would be able in time, to think her own thoughts, and feel her own feelings and do things in her own life. She was happy with that idea, but didn't want to be left alone. I reminded her that Christ would always be there to support her and she was happy with that. I said, that I would come to visit, if she liked, but Christ would be with her always and the Warriors will be there until her healed angel can return. I left her sitting on Christ's lap, wrapped in warm wings of light and love.

She may weep for a while to clean herself out, and then begin repairing. She needs a good, spiritually aware counselor.

December 29, 2012 – San Diego, California

The usual meditations and finally very deep. The central channel of white light received horns and the sun disk which can be angled – or rather it is a sphere and shines in all directions. All chakras are living and moving and well and bright

The spiritual family and I went up to the donut to look back on Earth. We saw all the dark influences, like black cords coming from the negative spiritual worlds to a number of people and then from those people spreading out to others from black cords – solar plexus to solar plexus.

I declared and affirmed that all off planet beings were not allowed to be here on Earth and then further declared that the black negative spiritual influence which did not leave humanity free was also no longer appropriate. The human connection to the spirit worlds whether positive or negative must now be initiated by humans individually.

The Warriors of the Rainbow Light unsheathed their rainbow swords and moved across the globe severing all the black ties that were coming from above. When that was finished, except for a couple of places which were too dense and steel hard (Switzerland, Italy, England and the east coast of the US) and some which are chaotic swirling masses of dark matter (Africa, South America, China and Korea.) When the main cords vertically from above were cut, they fell back into the people. The horizontal cords from person to person then went slack and the people on the end, who only received the influence from other humans felt, as the whole world received it too, a tremendous wave of light from above and a surge of loving Earth forces from below. Millions of those cords were blown out of people with a great popping sound. It sounded like cosmic popcorn, all over the world.

Now, people are clear of those sticky black cords of unconscious influence from others. The black cords had snapped back to the senders who are covered in the sticky black goo. The cut vertical cords from the dark spiritual forces had also sunk back down into the people. There will be even more fuzzy thinking in higher places and unreasonable declarations and actions.

2013 is the year of action – the years of doing. Grass roots people are now free to choose which actions they will take. We normal, little humans are free now from undue influence for a while, so we had better act quickly and decisively and strongly. I need to speak these things out into the world, to help people realize what is happening.

January 23, 2013, Wednesday – San Diego

Back to the huge spider - the group soul of the Azuras – when I was standing against it with my little needle sword. I cried against it saying, “In the name of Christ, you must go. You may not manipulate me or the world. You do not belong here. You must go – in the name of Christ.” My needle began to glow. Then thousands of other humans with glowing needles also came until the spider was covered, literally covered with human beings. So tiny compared to the creature. At first, I thought we would all pierce the beast with our needles, but then I realized that they were needles of love and that we would all melt the creature with love. If any ET beings are going to come onto Earth, they need to be greeted by a party of light and love – not just woo woo bliss/love, but knowledgeable love and light. The dark places must be seen, acknowledged, understood, and loved into light. And so it is.

This morning in meditation, I perceived a deeper meaning and understanding of the evolutionary scheme of things in this 4th pivotal Earth round. On the first 3 rounds down, we received the rudimentary, basic physical, etheric, astral and Ego/I components. In this 4th round, since the mystery of Golgotha, the end of Kali Yuga, and the seeding of the consciousness soul, we are in the process of redeeming the bodies by transforming them to the higher octave. The Ego/I does the work of consciously penetrating the lower bodies through love and understanding and free choice, therefore evolving and raising them to spirit-self – astral, life spirit – etheric, and finally spirit man – the transformed physical body, in the 3 rising rounds.

10% of humanity will excel and evolve ahead of the curve and transform their bodies early and appropriately. 15 to 20% or so, will lag behind because of the pernicious effects of the working of the dark side to hinder human evolution. The majority, 75% or so, will, to varying degrees of success, make the necessary transformations and move along the evolutionary path.

I have been thinking of the GMO situation. In the digestive process, everything is reduced to elements, but the etheric forces of the ingested food is released into the etheric body of the ingesting entity. It is the etheric forces that will damage and change the functioning of the etheric and physical bodies of that organism. Putting lower life form genes that are not normally eaten, into one's body will drag its etheric forces and consciousness down. While putting higher, life-form genes into a lower form may create monsters with lower intelligence.

Thursday, November 21, 2013 – Glorieta, New Mexico

“This is as much as can be said to a large group. For more details and to follow your own threads of thought, it is time to break into smaller groups: economics; human rights among yourselves and in the cosmic scheme; genetics; the history of evolution; mathematics of concept, form and existence; balance, harmony and healing in all directions; the concept and manifestation of the opposition; (and there were a few more listed which I didn't and obviously did not call to me.)

After a slight hesitation, I went to The Concept and Manifestation of the Opposition. The following are the notes. We were a large group of both men and women in a large, somewhat dim room.

“In all manifested existence, there is duality – physical, etheric, astral and lower devachan. It is only in the highest sublime dimensions/states/vibrations that there is unity. Simple duality and massive multiplicity is apparent in all the other realms. The archetypes of the opposition are extremes of either end of all polarity/duality, or the excessive division of extreme multiplicity leading to unrelated chaotic states and encounters, and the ultimate loss of the center. This is a description of the actions of Lucifer, Ahriman and the Azuras.”

“These forces of extremity in any and all directions, function to keep existence mobile. That is their correct and accurate role. But, each individual state of consciousness – each conscious entity – must learn to walk the middle path, utilizing all aspects of the diversity, but not going to extremes and losing the center of consciousness. This applies to all created conscious entities, from humans up to the higher hierarchies and down to lower beings. It is only in the heart of the creator, from that place of undifferentiated-all-potential, that unity is experienced. It is not a goal of Earth or any planet. By the time the inhabitants of any dimension are ready for that, it means the end of that evolutionary phase and the ceasing of existence into the 'ground of creation – God', and the step before re-embodiment – on whatever level, micro, meso or macro.”

“So before moving on. The opposition is at work in the world. By tempting people to Nihilism, Docilism, Depression, Apathy, Atheism – extremes of any persuasion – human evolution for the individual gets side-tracked. No one reincarnated to become a Nihilist, religious fanatic or suicide. These are not a part of anyone's destiny, really, although there are often important spiritual reasons why a person has dipped into such things. The infrastructure of the opposition is incredibly strong and embodied in Earthly organizations, structures, society, educations, medicine, government, etc. It can only be through the individual and their adhesion to their inner center (Christ) that humanity does not all succumb to the wiles of the opposition whose ulterior motive – whose goal – beyond the mere keeping mobile of thinking, feeling and willing – is to polarize segments of the population to their favored extreme and the spiritual power that accrues to themselves; rather than the slow but sure evolutionary rise of humanity to become themselves, spiritually powerful creator gods.”

Before I could go on to another group, we needed to come to closure.

“Thank you for coming, and you know what you have to do.” Then we shook hands around the circle like the sufis do, and then down the line of the white brotherhood and ascended masters Serapis Bey and Metatron. We each had our own phrase to say when we shook hands. I said, “I will be true.” Others said things like, “I will seek and find him.” “I will stand strong.” etc.

Tuesday, February 4, 2014 – San Diego, California

Ahriman is a fallen Spirit of Form. I think that I have said that before, because it has been given to me that he is. In almost all levels of the hierarchies and in all manifested species, there is the possibility of choice and necessary parameters or limitations to any and all levels of activity. In other words: there is good and bad, beneficent and malevolent in all species that come to relate to humanity. Only at the highest levels of the God-head, and perhaps the three levels at the throne of God, is the purity of complete polarization to the good assured and functional. The paradox, then, is that the good accepts and loves the bad, therefore enveloping the malevolent with beneficence.

At the highest levels, there is no judgment of good or bad, as both are in balance and at peace. Judgment on an emotional basis is not valid. 0 to 99% of the forces can simply be seen as an electric metaphor of + and -. When in balance and functioning from their intrinsic nature, all is well. Extremes of either polarity can cause difficulty at whatever level it occurs.

Human beings and most of the extra terrestrials who visit Earth in one plane or dimension, or another, also have, as we do, the freedom of choice to establish and remain in balance, or to go to either extreme end of the polarity.

Thursday, February 6, 2014 – San Diego, California

Vast numbers of many races are just doing the best they can – studying with the Ascended Masters of many races in the Galactic Federation – which was one of the original gathering organizations of multiple races and star systems in this galaxy. However, it has recently been fragmented on Earth and perhaps on other planets as well.

There are factions now in the Galactic Federation. Those that have polarized excessively are introducing themselves to humans as the Federation of Light. It is a luciferic faction, however. It is wielding its influence here on Earth through the New Age foibles. It is the dark reptilian group that has taken over the sacred mountains on Earth. So, although they call themselves the Federation of Light, they are working for the dark side.

The dark has a series of webs of control and power around the world: governments, finances – banking, insurance, and the stock markets, for instance. Religions have been infiltrated – Christianity, Islam, Buddhism, Jain, Sikh, the religions of Africa and South America. Every religion has been co-opted. Within each religion, there are good and striving individuals, but those who have risen in the power structures, are vulnerable to attack by their unredeemed human failings, and often succumb to the temptations of the dark side. The same is true in politics, finance, education, everywhere. Every large organization has become the 'home' or physically manifest body of dark, retarded spirits – luciferic, ahrimanic, and azuric.

The Allies of Humanity and a faction of the Galactic Federation, still hold to appropriate human evolution. It is clear to them and to some of us humans, that the 'turning or tipping' point has come and that we have not achieved the highest possible state yet, but that the dark oppositional side has nearly enslaved the world. It has gone the way the ages of the past have gone – toward self-destruction through each and all of the seven deadly sins within each individual, and through the dark minions ensouling the institutions and organizations – governments, businesses, NGOs, religions – every organized aspect of human life. All that is left free of such ensouling take-over on a mass scale is individual grass-roots consciousness. There are a tiny few small groups that function well, healthily, and for the common good. These are the seeds of future human evolution, culture and society.

So, this turning point, calendar progression, major change in vibratory rate (not ascension yet) is taking on massive physical properties which will accelerate in the next couple of years.

The foible at the top is the lower egotistical desire to dominate and control, which is powered and manifest through money and manipulation. Some high ones in the Galactic Federations have fallen prey and are 'cleansing' the lower echelons. Since the dark side has taken on the name "The Federation of Light," they are roaming the galaxy and causing havoc on planets like ours where duality has not yet been balanced by the indigenous populations – in our case, humanity. We so easily fall for anyone or anything purporting to be of 'the light.' We need to learn to discern the motives and intentions behind the words and white robes. We need to intensify our intuitive capacities. Only then, can we discern our individual true path and have the courage and common sense to follow it. And now, the negative factions have boarded the true Galactic Federation Mother Ships and taken over, much like they did to the sacred mountains. Perhaps at the same time? – yes, at the same time.

March 17, 2013, Pine Grove with Dietrich and Ignazio
Sergie Prokofief

This evening we heard that Prokofieff said that a spell was cast on him. This confirmed my feelings in Dornach, when I felt that he was under attack and so very much wanted to see and talk with him. I sat in his office at the Goetheanum for days, and talked with his secretary and prayed, but to no avail. In the middle of Dietrich and Ignazio and my conversation, I got the call to withdraw to silence and look into the issue.

I had done my meditations in the morning and so only had to clarify a few things and then I was ready. I was immediately presented by an image of Sergei standing a short way before me. He has tiny wires coming into many organs: testes, heart, brain, liver, third eye, eyes, intestines, spleen. Near his head I perceived what I took to be an Egyptian brain removal tool that looked like an old fashioned shoe button-hook. Then I understood what was happening. Small bits of the organ tissue are being squeezed etherically, cutting off the blood supply and making cold, dark, lifeless little places where cancer can grow. These are the spots on the body that relate to the 'amulets' on mummys.

I asked him, "How did you get these?" He replied, "There was a wandering, itinerant, spiritual being (shaman) offering initiations on the inner planes who came to me as a result of my desire for clearer spiritual vision. The initiation was said to be an Egyptian rite and that it would involve pain and then clearer sight. I agreed, but now this has happened."

I suggested that he call upon Christ, but when I said the name, Christ, the wire noose on his heart was pulled and tightened, causing him great pain. A terrible expression of pain and fear passed over his face and he cried out and would have convulsed if the many tiny wires hadn't kept him immobile. I saw the little wires going off to the left side as I looked at him. The wires led to an expanse of mummy wrappings and a bony hand and arm were twisting a scarab amulet at the heart causing his excruciating distress.

Ignazio had suggested that I use my spirit knife which is inscribed, "Wielded in Love" on one side of the handle, and "Destruction for Creation" on the other. However, the wire filaments were too strong, and it would have caused Sergei much more pain and probably would not have succeeded anyway. Since I was alone (although Christ and my angels and others are always in the 'wings', as it were) I could do nothing else to free him. He is conscious in the spiritual worlds and must do something himself. Again, I wish that we had met in life in Dornach and could work together in the spiritual worlds. However, wishing can not make it so.

I came out of the session to get a little help from Ignazio about the mummy and the Egyptian connection. When I asked, "Who in Egypt was Sergei?" I heard, "Ptolemy." Ignazio did the wiki on the Ptolemys and when we found out there were at least 15 of them and I asked, "Which one?" I heard, "Ptolemy the Seventh." These were the last pharaohs of the last dynasty, (years???) and I had felt that the rites and initiations were degenerate at the time of the origin of this problem. Even if embalming had become perfunctory, I felt that something definitely consciously evil had been done to the mummy of Ptolemy 7.

We discovered that he had been murdered by his uncle when he was merely a boy sharing the throne with his father. The uncle then became Ptolemy 8. I think that 'spells' and incantations and black magic had been perpetrated on the mummy of Ptolemy 7 because the uncle did not want the soul to return too soon, since he had died young. Did they 'curse' the mummy for future ill? I think so.

March 18, 2013 – Pine Grove with Dietrich and Ignazio

This morning after the usuals, I asked, "May I please understand what I have seen of Sergei Prokofieff?" and they said, "Unfortunately for humankind, there are beings who have a longer time-frame and cycle than do humans. Those beings are not always in the positive stream of evolution as it would best manifest for humans. Programs, issues, intentions, trajectories have been set in the distant past which have, are or will affect human life and evolution. These 'intentions' are designed to affect the physical, etheric, astral and Ego/I. Those that have been and are set into the physical worlds and body such as the GMOs and genetic splicing, embalming, blood and organ manipulations, etc, affect humans at a level they cannot (usually) access, fix or heal. The non-physical etheric and astral aspects can be modified by the Ego/I and Christ working together. The Ego/I needs a bit more time to develop its capacities and then, in time, will be able to navigate and act upon all planes and levels. It can even happen now, but there are some issues that affect all 3 or 4 aspects which are the 'Gordian knots of your time and place in evolution.'"

I began to think of Egypt and the process of embalming and its effects and who the pharaohs and others high up were and what the stated and implied goals of 'embalming' was and how it has affected humanity after death. Research subjects for the future.

This is a story of a very early spiritual experience during meditation. It has been almost 30 years since it occurred, and it is as alive in my soul now as it was then.

"It was Easter Sunday a long, long time ago. I went to the garden in the spiritual world at dawn. Christ, the gardener was working there, planting flowers in the moist Earth. He had a little trowel with which He dug the holes and then patted the young plants in with His beautiful hands. The fresh new flowers turned their faces toward Him and shone with a radiant light in His presence.”

“I asked, “May I help?” “Oh, my dear,” He replied, “you have other work.” And he took the little trowel in his hands and cleaned it and caressed it. When he opened his hands, He was holding not a trowel, but a beautiful golden dagger with an ornately carved handle. He gave it to me. I held it carefully and looked closely at it. On the cross-piece of the handle were engraved the words, “Wielded in Love.” I turned the blade over and on the other side it read, “Destruction for Creation.” A little leather sheath hung at my left side and after having held the blade up to the rising Easter sun in dedication, I slipped it into place.”

“Only rarely have I used this knife. Sometimes I have even forgotten it for long periods. Now, however, is the time to use it. Now it is needed to separate reality from fiction, and truth from lies - “Wielded in Love,” “Destruction for Creation.” Creation of a clear space for perception and understanding. Removal of excess and dross. Cutting the black cords of willful manipulation of another through the solar plexus or any chakra center. And always asking Christ, “Is this for me to do?”

“Over the years, the blade has become sharper. Now it is razor sharp and can perform precision surgery. Again, I hold the blade up to the rising sun in dedication to light and love and to receive blessings from above, that I may truly wield it in love, destroying the old, outworn, and useless, the degraded and retrograde; to create a clean, clear space for the noble, the true, the beautiful and the good. “

In the name of Christ, so it is.

In the light of Christ, I am.

Sunday, June 29, 2014 – Center for Spiritual Living in Seattle, Washington

At the service with Solveig, listening to the gay man from Kansas – Elmer Gantry, foul-mouthed, negative-conscious-intent style – I made a few realizations.

The luciferic illusion of the lala new age, Unity, CSL, etc., consciousness or lack thereof, with no acceptance or acknowledgment of the forces of opposition and evil working in the worlds – the total denial of a substantial part of the objective spiritual and physical reality – is that the lower human nature itself and the physical body are considered the 'gutter' and un-divine. Those parts of the human being are the only badness or evil in the universe. Everything else is “God the Good.” Human beings are blamed for all the sin on Earth.

It is just another sly manipulation of the opposition (adamantly refused existence by the ignorant and manipulators) to separate human beings, one from the other and from the true connection to the divine spiritual worlds within and without. It is an unthinking dogma which is easily twisted to create fear, shame, and then anger and rejection of spiritual reality. The belief is not logical, nor precise. A modicum of discernment would reveal the faulty thinking behind the facade of “God the Good.” If “God the Good” is the creator of the cosmos, then it should be obvious to a clear observer, that there are other forces at work in the world than simply the positive. The negative exists on many levels and in many realms.

Therefore, "God the Good" is simply not an accurate human description of the actuality of "GOD." God is "God the Good and Bad." The 'creator of all' encompasses all duality, including the lower nature of humanity, and the tempters to negative actions.

Wednesday, December 3, 2014 – Berkeley, California

Up to the New Jerusalem and Christ said, when I asked for help, "Discipline is an inside job. You must do it. You must focus." So I will.

Lucifer was effective when humankind was fresh from the spiritual worlds, and still "trailing clouds of glory." His effectiveness has worn off. When Ahriman hit the scene, humanity was becoming more deeply enmeshed in physicality. The etheric world, and earth-bound thinking were prime ripe for manipulation. Now humanity is so far and so deeply embedded in materialism that Lucifer's temptations have lost much of their former allure.

The Azuras have taken over where Lucifer left off. Individuals who in the past in this life have been susceptible to Lucifer's wiles are now more easily prey of the Azuras. Their goal is the intensification of Lucifer's methods. Now, not only is the person lifted off the earthly plane to lose himself in illusion, but the actual Ego/I is being systematically destroyed. The effects of heavy drugs like 'crack' and methamphetamines are an example of that. Individuals lose their humanness – their individuality – and are enslaved to a drug that renders all other aspects of life meaningless – the mind, the heart, and the whole world.

Lucifer is being redeemed and he and his minions will help in the struggle against the temptations of the Azuras. Lucifer will in time, be working with Christ. We need all the help we can get.

Friday, December 5, 2014 – Berkeley, California

Lucifer offered humankind the opportunity to become aware of, purify and transform our astral bodies to the higher octave of the Spirit Self (Manas.) Ahriman is the goad whereby we become conscious of our etheric bodies in order to transform them to the purified etheric Spirit Life (Buddhi.) Now that Lucifer is being redeemed because he has accomplished his task and we contemporary human beings have the immediate task of actualizing our spirit selves, the Azuras have arrived to provide the stimulus for lower Ego transformation to the higher octave of Spirit Man (Atman.)

Ahriman is still between two other forces of evil, and like the second child in the family, has had no time alone, but is always working in tandem with another force of perversion. The working with Lucifer is coming to its appointed, star-designated end. The Azuras are already here on Earth and their work has begun. If the actual consciousness of an individual can be perverted and the higher Ego/I is not able to function as the resident entity in the lower bodies, then the soul will be blighted and the Azuras take the place of the original, rightful, spark-of-the-divine human individuality. The human soul and spirit may be ejected from the bodies and a possessing ahrimanic and/or azuric being gain possession and residence in the human form.

Sunday, February 8, 2015 – Santa Rosa, California

I want to understand the 'double.' Rudolf Steiner said, "See it from my time and perspective and then look at it again from your own point of view." So I saw that it is not a content, it is through the process of materialistic thinking, feeling and willing that the double grows and develops. The extremes of light and dark obscure the truth of the middle path of observation and the resulting objective conclusions and concepts that can arise in too much of the brilliant light of luciferic intellectuality, burns out the normal logical, sequential, realistic truth and ;leaves illusions and inflamed egotistical delusions in the void spaces/.

Dark materialistic observations and conclusions drag the thinking into dark matter and the thinking process becomes mired in dead-end, dense, materialistic conclusions that do not breathe with life. The resulting concepts are bound to earthly matter and do not rise to the cosmic overview. The 'double' is that thinking personified as the shadow of the true individual.

The thinking process – the attention and consciousness of each individual runs along certain pathways:

Luciferic thinking is all up in the astral realms – the macro-cosmic realms and hence the attention and consciousness do not penetrate into the 'real' world of integrated physical, etheric and astral bodies penetrated and motivated by the mature Ego/I.

Ahrimanic thinking processes do not rise above a fascination and manipulation of physical laws and parameters which are imposed over the true functions of the etheric, astral and Ego/I realities. Hence, physical limitations constrain the higher members of the individual. The 'double' is the anthropomorphized being who is the result and extension of the ahrimanic, materialistic thinking. Because it is not based on human interaction, the 'double' itself is not resolved in kamaloca. The resulting interactions with friends and family are the 'meat and potatoes' of the kamaloca resolutions. However, the ensouled ahrimanic being who inhabits the materialistic thought process, unless recognized and redeemed in life, waits in the sphere between the etheric and astral worlds. (the cubbies of St. Peter in the Esoteric Christian Chapter of Lucid Death: Conscious Journeys Beyond the Threshold.) The 'double' rejoins the next incarnation near birth.

Our processes must be reclaimed during life. The resulting actions and relationships based on either luciferic or ahrimanic 'double' influence will be resolved in kamaloca. This is why we must penetrate all aspects of the physical, etheric and astral bodies, and our thinking feeling and willing, with our conscious Ego/I: to learn to master all aspects of existence so that eventually – far away – eventually we will be the creators of new worlds.

At this time in history, we humans are abdicating our rights and duties to Ahriman. We must reclaim those rights and duties and organize life in accordance and harmony with the positive, forward evolutionary thrust of the cosmic Christ

Thursday, February 12, 2015 – Soquel, California

More on the 'double.' All opposition must be redeemed, synergized, metamorphosed, and transformed into positive forces for forward evolution. The double in the accumulated residues of negative encounters with the natural world through lifetimes, and although they are personal, they are not interpersonal with other human beings. They are the result of either unconscious or negative responses to the elemental beings who create manifested existence.

It is becoming ever more important that humans ensoul their exchanges and interactions with the beings of the material world and the animators of the lower ethers. Especially now, as Christ has ascended into the astral world, we humans are responsible for ensouling, enlivening and flooding with benevolent consciousness, the etheric worlds. We must raise ourselves consciously into the etheric world and fill it with impulses for positive evolution.

The dregs of our past (in this lifetime and some unreclaimed residues of past lives) must be reclaimed, healed and filled with the consciousness of "Christ in me" and the compassionate pouring of unconditional love into the ethers, warming and transforming the beings caught there in the unconscious, uncaring and despising limits of human/Elemental relations.

The electro/magnetic forces are themselves, neutral forces. Without them we would not think, feel or live. It is the quality of or consciousness that validates or vilifies. We must remain sovereign within our bodies and assure that the electro/magnetic forces are infused with intelligent, loving and disciplines consciousness.

Friday, February 20, 2015 – Novato, California

Up to the New Jerusalem and I saw how the development of human history is dividing into material technology and forward into spiritual development. What Christ has done and we shall do likewise, is individual mastery of the various planes of human existence – physical, etheric, astral and Ego/I. We can understand masterfully these planes and so have knowledge, abilities and inner tools and techniques to create and transform in all the dimensions according to our understanding of the cosmic laws of each realm.

The materialistic approach only works on the physical aspects – subjugating the other realms to the laws and functions of the physical world. Thinking, feeling, and willing, the etheric, astral and Ego/I are all pulled down to the physical and lower etheric planes. Technology then becomes the supreme force by which the higher dimensions and beings are pressed into service of the lowest realms.

Children will be especially damaged by an education based on technology. Their inner capacities to access the higher spiritual worlds through imagination, inspiration, and intuition will not be developed into functional human abilities. Children need to create their own inner pictures, rather than passively take in pre-formed images on television and other visual technology. Children need to make up stories and songs, sing, dance and play music to develop a creative inner capacity to receive the inspiration of inner guidance from higher spiritual worlds. If one only listens to pre-packaged, electronic music and only plays technological games, the ability to create inner worlds is damaged and one can only react with pre-conditioned responses to what life brings. This is not to mention the potential for manipulation and negative influences in the pre-packaged entertainment and the unconscious acceptance of such influence by vulnerable children.

Then I got off into the Autism world. I can see that intelligence is there but they are lacking in human contact and social skills. Therefore, technology might seem like the perfect world for them, as they have a physical and emotional buffer between all their relations with other human beings. The succeeding incarnations will be ever more humanly barren, however, and ahrimanically influenced.

Is the wave of autism a result of torture in the past few lives? The horror of a continuing pain which is designed to damage the Ego/I's hold on the physical, etheric and astral bodies; and which engenders fear and hatred for the physical body as the source of the pain; could very well be at the root of the autistic spectrum.

So, Pot Pol comes to mind and Mao tse Tung and many other smaller torturers and times. It might be people who have not had a religion or even love in their lives and so had nothing to cling to or rest in. These autistic children have come back after dying young. It is not the result of an elderly death. Unless, could it be the result of a long, early-onset Alzheimer's end in the last life. Is there a particular pollutant or a few of them that make it impossible for the Ego/I to inhabit the body? Or GMOs? These children seem to have 'perfect' bodies, but are not able to inhabit them properly. Is technology a positive way to interact with them or not? How is the 'Ruskin Mills/Waldorf' approach reaching them? What do they need?

As I formulated the questions, some of the answers became clear and apparent to me. No, it is not the result of something physical like pollution, GMOs, or birth trauma, but the result of an inner schism between the Ego/I and the world: such as torture, child pornography and enforced sexuality, traumatic brain washing and abuse, etc. All the children and young people who have been abused by the church and schools and betrayed by those they trusted or were in positions of authority, etc. are candidates for this difficulty. Pain, sado-masichism, early death by violence, or suicide are all set-ups for autism in the next incarnation.

What they need is a community that supports them. A community of happy co-operative people who can love, laugh, dance, sing and work together. It is not enough to have one person for them. They need a safe, secure community and a circle of healers around them.

Monday, February 23, 2015 – Sebastopol, California

Today I must decide if I want to speak at the IANDS conference or not. I do want to, but logistics and money are the issue.

Again, the autism issue entered my field. It is said that vaccines cause autism and in some cases I am sure it does cause all kinds problems. All the different kinds of vaccines and their contents are definitely harmful to normal human growth and development. But again, I think it exacerbates certain latent problems and residues from past lives, as well. There is mercury in most of the vaccines. Is it possible that receiving a shot with a chemical that caused illness, insanity and death in a past life (the mad hatter working with mercury; dyers and tanners working with other chemicals and poisons; artists and painters working with lead; etc.) is causing negative flash-back, bleed-throughs from those past times?

Autism then, may be the result of a PTSD episode from a past life traumatic experience or death, torture, pain, excessive sexual experiences at too early an age or trauma of chemical, material origin. This manipulating physical and etheric properties without having a spiritual background, much less a physical understanding of the complete workings of the physical world, has harmed humanity and the earth. The effects in the physical world are very long standing. Some of the traumatic emotional effects may just be showing up now in the rise of autism.
